termoon by which the Tammany Heclers now hold second place in the league.

The first game was played between the Canada Flour Mills team, and the Motor Car team, and was a dopy game throughout. There were very few brilliant plays all through the game and for the spectators the game was very slow and draggy. For the C. F. M.'s the star players were Robert, Clements, Clark and Dyer, and they were the means of winning the game. Clark made a brisk game. Robert showed up well as brisk game. Robert showed up well as pitcher, striking out twelve men, and Clements behind the bat was there with the merchandise. Dyer made several nice catches on third base and showed up well at bat. For the Motor Cars Davis, pitched the first four innings, and Hird, who made his first appearance with the Motor Cars on Saturday, pitched the first four innings, and Hird, who made his first appearance with the Motor Cars on Saturday, pitched the game from the fourth to the finish. Hird is strong at bat and plays a steady game. Brundage was not as good as he usually is, and Depew was caught napping once or twice. Head, formerly with the Tammany Heelers, now plays with the Motor Tars.

The score resulted 7 to 17 in favor of the C. F. M.'s, and is their fourth straight victory.

Their line-up was as follows:

C. F. M.—Clark, Ward, Clements, West, Robert, Tickner, Dyer, Daft, McDonald.

picked upon for the awful example. It was known that his sentence would be severe.

He might have gotten 14 years, but Magistrate Jackson made it three.

Next came Logie. He is said to be 50 years old. He was mixed up with Burke and counterfeiting, as far back as 1905, and then again, in 1907. Magistrate Moore, however, found him less guilty than Burke, and gave him two years in the penitentiary.

Bouyea and Wynn came next, and each man got 30 days in jail.

Pleased the People.

The last defendant to be called was Eveleigh. The crown moved for sentence and suggested that a remand would be satisfactory. He left the court room a free man, upon giving his own recognizance. He was the first man to be arrested and likely led to the capture of the others.

The crowd, which cheered the acquittal of Miller, was no less enthusiastic when Bouyea and Wynn escaped with a nominal sentence, and Eveleigh with no sentence at all. Magistrate Jackson intimated that a higher power might reduce the sentence of Burke and Logie's attorney applied for a certificate that his client had been used by the crown as a witness, thus indicating that he would apply for commutation.
