A CASE OF WAGES

Wallaceburg Magistrate Reserves Decision—Prominent Tupperville Farmer Dead

From Our Own Correspondent.
Wallaceburg, Nov. 13.—The case of O'Mara vs. Handor was tried in the Police Court yesterday before Magistrate Alex. McDougall. The case was purely a dispute over wages. Handor worked for O'Mara and left before his time—according to agreement—had expired, and O'Mara refused to pay him his wages, so the case was brought into Court. The magistrate reserved his decision.

T. C. Stegman, of Chatham, is in town on business.

J. T. Saint will have charge of the funeral of the late J. T. McNulty, who died at Port Lambton yesterday.

Mr. John Burns, of Tupperville, a highly respected citizen of that place, died at his home yesterday.

Mrs. Andrew Wickens, of this place, is a daughter of Mr. Burns.

Mrs. Geo. Frye, of Chatham, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Mann.

Zam-Buk Wins Workers' Praise

MARVELOUS CURE OF BURNS.
Zam-Buk has been called "the worker's friend" because it brings such relief and healing to workers who suffer from cuts, burns, bruises or any skin injury or disease. Mr. Alf. J. Clark, of Cavendish street, London, Ont., tells how Zam-Buk cured him of severe burns. He says: "I got my hands very severely burned with lime. The burns were so deep that as I pried my shovel the blood actually ran down the handle. The agony I suffered you may well imagine. I tried several different kinds of salves but the burns were too severe for these preparations to heal. I obtained a supply of Zam-Buk and the very first application gave me ease. This pleased me, you may guess, but as I applied the balm each day I was more and more pleased with the effect. The pain was relieved completely."

"I had often heard of Zam-Buk, but thought before I tried it that it was similar to the ordinary salves you see advertised. In a very short time Zam-Buk healed my burns completely, and my hands actually felt better—the muscles more firm and the skin in better condition than before I was burned."

Not only for burns, but for cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., Zam-Buk is the best and surest cure. It also cures eczema, ulcers, abscesses, ringworm, boils, eruptions, poisoned wounds, chapped or cracked hands, cold sores, chilblains, bad leg, piles, etc. All druggists sell at 50c a box, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

FOOTBALL MATTERS

To the Editor of The Planet:
Dear Mr. Planet—Kindly allow me a small space in your valuable paper for the following:

In your weekly issue of Wednesday I noticed a small item under the heading of Kent Bridge. As a looker-on at the game between Mitchell's Bay and Kent Bridge, which the worthy correspondent talks of, and forcibly installs the few lines of poetry, I do not hesitate in saying that things did go wrong, but only with the one team. K. B. need not feel sore at being disappointed at (her or his) team being defeated, for they were up against a stumbling block, and a superior team, as the result showed.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space, I am,
Yours, etc.,
SORE HEAD.
Chatham, Nov. 10th, 1906.
