BIG NEW MAP OF CARLETON CO.

For the first time in more than 35 years a wall map of Carleton county is soon to be issued. This will fill a long felt want as every business man, doctor, lawyer, farmer, motorist, teacher, school, and every home in the county is waiting for just this map.

Most of the data is supplied by the Department of the Interior (Dom. Topographical Survey) and parishes are shown in different colors. Postoffices are plainly marked, highways are distinctly shown, every lake, stream, and the railways appear.

The map will be lithographed in three colors and black on heavy paper, linen mounted, with wood rollers. Drawn to a scale of nearly two inches to the mile it will be most convenient.

The Observer is issuing this map at tremendous cost, but believes there is urgent need for the work. It will be ready Dec. 1 and orders are now being booked. Send YOURS in today. Price, $3.50.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Dandruff right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen, and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dandruff tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandruff. Save your hair! Try it!

THE ERA OF GLASS.

It May Come After Our Iron Ore Deposits Are Exhausted.

The iron ore deposits of the world are being rapidly exhausted, and the time is not far distant when we will have to get along without iron and steel. Before that day arrives some substitute for these valuable things will have to be found, and it has been suggested by a scientist familiar with the subject that the logical successor will be glass.

Glass can be made to meet nearly all the requirements of iron and steel and with improved methods of manufacture will be a great deal cheaper. There is an abundant supply of the materials from which glass is made, and long before iron reaches the obsolescent stage it is more than likely that glass will be one of its strongest competitors.

The chief fault with glass is its brittleness, but it is possible even now to produce a grade of glass which can stand a great deal of hard usage and serve many of the purposes for which iron is employed. The progress of invention is bound to evolve a quality of glass which will be as strong and durable as iron and transparent as well.

The use of glass will effect a great improvement in sanitary conditions. The building of the future, according to this scientist, will have its walls, ceilings, floors, sanitary fixtures and almost everything else made of glass.—Exchange.

BELETED RECOGNITION.

Plaint of a Woman Who Was Shadowed by a Detective.

"Acquaintance with a detective is not the good thing some people may imagine," said a young woman who has never yet been accused of being an adventuress or anything else that is supposed to get one's name on the front pages of the newspapers.

"A few months ago I was asked of a belt that I prized very highly because it was unique and cannot be duplicated. I spent considerable money and had the assistance of a headquarters detective, but without recovering the belt.

"That was all well enough, but the other day as I was walking down Broadway I saw Mr. Detective. He saw me, too, and remembered that he had seen me somewhere, but had evidently forgotten the circumstances. He shadowed me for a block; then when I turned into a store he slipped into a doorway and waited for me to come out. Again he shadowed me till I turned into my doorway.

"At that point he seemed to suddenly remember that he had known me as a client, not as a victim, for as I looked back he seemed to have a sheepish look in his face as he turned and walked rapidly away."

New York's First Mayor.

The first mayor of New York, Thomas Willet, was indicted into office in June, 1665. Governor Richard Nicolls, the first English executive of the future Empire State, was responsible for the appointment of Willet, who was a wealthy merchant and trader and had a town house in New York and a country estate in Rhode Island, where his body was buried in 1674. Willet, who was a shrewd business man, governed New York honestly and well and after his first term of one year was made mayor again in 1667. The municipal government of which he was the head was composed of five aldermen, three Dutch and two English, and a sheriff, although police duties devolved largely upon the mayor, and he was police magistrate as well.

A Wonderful Drummer.

Probably the most remarkable drummer who ever lived was Jean Henri, the famous tambour major of the Emperor Napoleon. One of his feats was to play on fifteen different toned drums at the same time in so soft and harmonious a manner that instead of the deafening uproar that might have been expected the effect was that of a novel and complete instrument. In playing he passed from one drum to the other with such wonderful quickness that the eyes of the spectators could hardly follow the movement of his hands and body.

Mansfield's Humor.

Richard Mansfield's humor was often misapprehended for conceit.

One night the company was playing under a tin roof upon which a sudden downpour of rain caused a terrific clatter. This startled Mansfield into exclaiming, "What's that noise?" "Rain, sir," was the answer. "Tell it to stop!" ordered the actor fiercely.—New York Globe.

She Was Prepared.

"I trust, Miss Tappit," said the benevolent employer to his stenographer, "that you have something in reserve for a rainy day."

"Yes, sir," said the earnest young woman. "I am going to marry a man named Mackintosh."

Perfectly Plausible.

Cautious Customer—But if he's a young horse, why do his legs bend so? Dealer—Ah, sir, the poor animal has been living in a stable too low for him, and he's had to stoop!—Exchange.

Be Nice.
On fetching gowns I do not frown,
But have a care, Clarice,
And don't wear such a fetching gown
That you'll fetch the police.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Upon silk skirts I never frown—
In fact, I like them, Nancy.
But I don't believe that I'd wear one
If I had your spaghetti.
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Don't let them kid you so about
Your scanty skirts, Leont.
If you were huskier no doubt
They'd talk of macarons.
—Indianapolis Star.

On slender folks like you, Marie,
Each fresh and clever youth picks,
But were I you he'd never see
My pipestems or my toothpicks.

Was Hard to Convince.
"I don't care much for moving picture shows," said the grouch. "The films they show are too improbable."
"Whaddy ya mean improbable?" asked the boob.
"Why, I saw one last night that showed a daughter helping her mother to wash the dishes," replied the grouch.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Modern.
When Enoch Arden, after years
Upon the desert isle,
To find his wife and home again
Tramped many a weary mile
And, stealing in the garden gate
Through twilight shadows gray,
Before the cottage window stood
He started in dismay.

"I recognize the room," he said.
"The carpet worse for wear,
The cuckoo clock that never went,
The old rocking chair,
The worsted motto on the wall—
These things I oft have seen—
But that is not my wife, because
That woman's hair is green."
—Life.

Only Complaints.
"I s'pose John is still taking life easy," said the woman in the train.
"Yes," answered the woman who was carrying a bundle of clothes, "John has only got two regrets in life. One is that he has to wake up and eat, and the other is that he has to give up eatin' to sleep."
—The Nation's Weekly.

The Easy Mark.
Bill Crook again is in disgrace,
And off to jail he's trotted.
Poor Bill has got a needed rap,
That's why he's always spotted.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Some brains is what Bill seems to lack,
Or else they couldn't fall him.
Bill has a head just like a tack.
That's why they always nail him.
—New York Mail.

Fear Bill's a nut they like to crack.
The ones are apt to joke him.
Unfortunately he's a sponge,
And that is why they soak him.

More Cruel Than Moby.
Mrs. Bryde—I told my husband I was going to give him something of my own cooking and he said I'd better try it on the dog first. Wasn't that a cruel suggestion?
Her Friend—Very! And I thought your husband was so fond of dogs.—Boston Transcript.

Wonderful Woman.
With hat tipped over, no eye free,
"Tis very plain she cannot see.

With hair combed over the ears 'tis clear
That she, of course, can hardly hear.

With gown so tight it causes talk
'Tis plain that she can scarcely walk.

And yet she dodges autos, teams,
And gets along quite well, it seems.

Man never could survive, poor chap,
Beneath one-half that handicap.

A Crafty Politician.

"So you think you have your opponent defeated before the campaign starts?"

"I'm sure of it. He is going to depend on the old fashioned handshaking methods to make himself agreeable. I'm learning to dance."
—Washington Star.

Ahey!

"A sailor told I'd like to be,"
I heard the farmer roar,
"For I would like to blow the sea
And then raise cash on shore."
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"I'd like to sail the ocean far,"
Said Eugenet McGue,
"For I could teach the mast to spar
And box the compass too."
—Detroit Free Press.

La Lectura, in an article on South Africa, tells of the hopelessness of the idea of an amalgamation between Boers and Britons. Leaders of the Transvaal and Orange river colonies warn their Boer people against intermarriage with the British.

When the Liver Gets Torpid

There is Nothing Like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to Set it Right.

Mrs. C. L. Cook, 248 Tenth street, Brandon, Man., writes:—"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the last four years for liver trouble, and can say that I have had great satisfaction and help from them. I find that I do not need any doctor if I use them when the liver gets torpid, and believe that they are exactly suited for my case. My husband has used them for kidney trouble with good results, and my daughter in Winnipeg has been helped a great deal by the use of these pills. We say we can't keep house without them, and have cheated the doctors here out of a good many visits. I think Dr. Chase's medicines are just the thing, and have recommended them to many people who have used them with good results."

By keeping the liver active and the bowels regular Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prevent and cure such disorders as biliousness, constipation, chronic indigestion and headache. One pill a dose 50c a box, 5 for $1.00, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

"KILLED BY WHISKEY!"

But the Doctor, Through Respect to His Family, Said it was "Heart Failure."

In THREE TO FIVE DAYS, Without Hypodermic Injections or Disagreeable Features, the Gatlin Treatment Cures the Liquor Habit, Restores the Nervous System and Repairs Damage Liquor Has Done.

IF THE NEWSPAPERS of the country would for ONLY ONE month report the actual number of deaths directly traceable to liquor drinking, and give FULL PARTICULARS in each case, and at the end of that month should the "WET OR DRY" proposition be submitted to a vote of the whole people, NEVER AGAIN would there be a drop of liquor lawfully sold in Canada.

Every liquor dealer excuses himself for being a SLAVE—for being the victim of A DEBASING POISON—by declaring that he is but a MODERATE DRINKER—that he was never drunk in his life.

Moderate drinking, steady drinking, periodic drinking—its all the same and has the same END. Alcohol is a cumulative poison. You can poison yourself with it just as effectively SLOWLY AS QUICKLY.

Come to the GATLIN INSTITUTE TODAY—it will be the best move that you EVER MADE in your life. In THREE TO FIVE DAYS the Gatlin treatment will remove every trace of alcoholic poison from the system. At the end of the THIRD or FIFTH day you will go home with no craving or desire for any kind of alcoholic liquor. Your nerves will be steady and strong—your appetite better than in years—the vital organs of your body working properly without the stimulus of alcohol.

Come to the GATLIN INSTITUTE TODAY and have your system cleared of the WHISKEY POISON—you will find that your OWN STEAM is much better MOTIVE POWER than alcohol.

If you cannot come to the Institute for three to five days send for the Gatlin Home Treatment.

After you have taken the Gatlin treatment and are ready to leave the Institute, if you are not FULLY CURED, and SATISFIED that you are, ask for the fee paid for treatment and it will be immediately returned to you. That is embodied in a legally executed contract.

There are over SIXTY-SEVEN GATLIN INSTITUTES being successfully operated throughout the United States and Canada.

Call or write for the books of particulars, copies of contracts to cure and other information.
