The door was broken on the hinges and witness relieved the woman had become frightened and left. Witness did not know the woman's name, it being an Italian name which she could not pronounce.

Mr. Shure othem informed the Court the woman's name was Mrs. Catherine Jelontse.

This completed the case for the Crown. Mr. Shure othem requesting a withdrawal of the charges against Pagoni, J. S. Greenwell, T. Greenwell, Arthur Jordan and N. Richardson, the request being acceded to by the Court.

Dear Sirs,—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disfigured for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly,
W. A. V. R.
