Hundred? Why, new, second-hand, and with those being repaired up stairs by the men, I've got at least three hundred on the premises, while if anybody had told me fifteen years ago that I should be doing this I should have laughed at him.

That pretty girl showing and explaining the machine to a customer? That's Ruth, that is. No not my daughter—yet, but she soon will be. Poor girl, I always think of her and of the bread thrown upon the waters at the same time.

Curious idea that, you will say, but I'll usil you why.

In our trade we have strange people to deal with. Most of 'em are poor, and can't buy a machine right off, but are ready and willing to pay so much a week. That suits them, and it suits me, if they will only keep the payments up to the end.

You won't believe me, perhaps, but
