For Strength, Lightness, and Durability, no other Binder dare enter a field trial with her.

Dear Sir.—As there has been a false report in circulation for some time past, calculated to hurt the sale of the filtwankee Junior Binder, and as a greatmany have been asking me whether it is east saide or not, this is to certify that I have worked it with the greatest satisfaction for the past three years without any trouble or expense. It is easily handled and light on the horses. Two horses are quite sufficient on level ground. I would advise any person intending to buy a Self Binder to see the Milwankee at work before purchasing alsowhere. After working it three years I would not exchange it for any Binder I have yet seen.
