These were approved by His Grace and the Brothers, and

Rev. Bro. Kennedy stated that the attendance at the schools was now 420, and there is not even seating accommodation for a large percentage of this number, and that such a condiffion was unfair to the boys and the schools to say the least.

It was the unanimous opinion of the meeting to proceed with the work imredulately. A sub-committee was appointed with Rev. Bro. Kennedy, Chairnan and John Barron, Secy. Treas. Tenders will be asked for and subnitted to a meeting of all the men of the congregation on Sunday next in the Holy Cross Schools, after last Mass. The Archbishop has kindly

Here and There. Songs in the Night.

Some gleams of eternal light To cheer some heart in the shadows; To aid some sold in the fight; Precedes the roseate morn That the amber and gold of cloud land Return with the sunburst of dawn;

To learn in the world's great school-The lessons the Master will give of fortitude faith and patience He feaches His scholars to live: lo believe in eternal goodness That infinite love redounds

Greater than all the evil That on the earth abounds

This is the song in the night time. The bursting of prison chains, That solves the mystery of suffering, That cheers in the midst of pains. As to His prophet of old,

Through tears we behold the vision, Don't forget C. L. B. "A" Co. Dance in Armoury, Harvey Rd., Tuesday, Nov. 4th, at 9.15 p.m.
