The Teacher Responsible.RUTH CAMERON.

"But why did you go when you knew you were too tired?" asked the husband.
The wife in the case had put the finishing touch to a condition of utter faggedness by going on a tire-some, all-day jaunt with her husband, and had been taken ill and ordered to her bed for a complete rest.

of the ordinary her housemates think it is because she is actuated by some fear. Sometimes this is not the real motive and then she is very indignant at the suspicion. But she has no reason. They are only repeating the lesson she has taught them.

Each Deed Is Judged By Other Deeds.
Our relations with other people are not determined by isolated acts. There is no such thing as an isolated act. Each day is filled with little deeds that build up a conception of our character in the minds of each person with whom we come into contact, and each little deed is in its turn judged in the light of that concept.

What do people expect of you, kindness and sympathy or unkindness and lack of sympathy, interested in their affairs or self-centeredness, an open ear for unkind gossip or unwillingness to believe evil? Whatever they expect, you must hold their teacher responsible. And you know who that teacher is.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."
"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."
Zylex, 50c. a box; Zylex Soap, 25c. a cake.

Dainty crepe collars are trimmed with tucking or a fine pleated edge. Add a touch of color to your parol by running ribbon through it. There is little doubt but that the loose-wristed glove will be much worn.

Speaking of Beverages!

Here's to the friend of the thirsty! The best and most refreshing drink you can obtain is a good, honest, always-the-same Tea like HOMESTEAD.

It's mildly exhilarating, promotes digestion and has no after-clap of insomnia, headaches or nausea.

THE HOBBO.

The hobbo is a modest member of society who is too proud to work and too tired to bathe. One of the most refined acts of cruelty that can be perpetrated is to lead a confirmed hobbo up to something that looks like work or a shower bath and watch him faint dead away.

The hobbo is usually somebody who ran away from home in early youth in order to escape paying a few crows or hoing the potatoes. This tendency could have been removed at the proper time by love and a careful coddling, but the chances are that the hobbo's parents thought they were rearing a piece of mural decoration instead of a human derelict. The home where the children are expected to perform a few acts of helpful industry once in a while is a poor recruiting station for the hobbo army.

The hobbo goes South in the winter and fits North in the spring, along with the bow-legged robin redbreast. Unlike the robin, however, he does not go north to work, but to rest. There is not enough rest being manufactured at the present time to satisfy the cravings of two stout, prohibition hobbos, to say nothing of those who have been resting ever since the Civil War. All over the North in the summer time, are to be found cosy rest resorts inhabited by able-bodied hobbos who are three-fourths appetite and one-fourth snore. Now and then the hobbo will sally forth to the home of some kind-hearted housewife, who imagines she is entertaining an angel unaware, and return with bulging pockets and stomach. If it were not for the tender heart of woman the hobbo would vanish off the face of the earth faster than the Progressive party.

The hobbo is a great traveler, and jumps from place to place just ahead of the town marshal. There is only one thing he is afraid of, next to toll, and that is the double-fisted freight brakeman, who has perfect control over his right leg. Many a tired hobbo, who is in need of encouragement and a hair cut, has been kicked in a rude and circumspect manner from a coal car by one of these base hirelings who has no more heart than a gourd.

The hobbo could earn $3.50 a day and board in the wheat fields, if he did not shrink from contact with labor. He has solved the problem of how to live without work and be happy without a toothbrush, which shows that he is a great deal smarter than many men who wear better clothes.

SALESMEN.

WALT MASON.

Throughout the town my wares I holler, and try to sell a new gold dollar for sixty-seven cents; in vain, alas, are all my yellings; in vain I haunt your shops and dwellings, your woodsheds and your tents. No man will buy my handsome money; men seem to think it must be phony, because I'd sell it cheap; so all day long I seek a market, display my coin and boost and bark it, and then break down and weep. But now comes Nestor Newton Neuter, who deals in dollars made of pewter, alloyed with lead and tin; he seems to loaf while I am sweating, and yet men's bundles he is getting; he rakes the greenbacks in. One man has got the trick of selling; he needs to do no frantic yelling to gather in the plunk; he just leans back, his system sunning, and all the people come a-running, to buy his blooming junk. The other fellow strives and labors to sell good plunder to his neighbors, and never gets the kale; no scraps of business can he rake up; there something lacking in his make-up, he cannot make a sale.

Everyday Etiquette.

"Will you kindly inform me whether the prefix 'Miss' is proper before an 18-year-old girl's name on her card which she encloses with an invitation," asked Eliza.

"The card should be engraved with 'Miss' for all occasions," said her aunt.

HOSPITAL FILLED. — At present there is not a single unoccupied cot at the General Hospital and many people from the outports are in boarding houses in town waiting to be admitted to the institution.

For Our Boys in Khaki

The Daughters of Empire propose holding a Garden Party on Wednesday, August 30, from 3 o'clock to 7 o'clock at Silverton, Kilbride Road, the residence of Lady Outerbridge, immediately opposite Bowring Park.

The proceeds from the Garden Party will go towards helping a fund to enable our Newfoundland soldiers, when on furlough or back from the trenches, to seek much needed rest and relaxation at one of the comfortable Hostels which are now being provided for the special benefit of Overseas Soldiers. These Hostels (accommodation at same costing three shillings per day) have been established in London and Edinburgh by The Victoria League (a society in London in alliance with The Daughters of Empire in St. John's) and are under the personal management and care of the members of the League. Devoted and careful attention is given to every detail conducive to the welfare and recuperation of our men. In addition to the accommodation provided for at the Hostels, entertainments such as Smoking Concerts, Motor drives, etc., are arranged for our men, the object of the Society being to supply the wants of Overseas soldiers which soldiers coming from England would expect to find in their own homes.

Don't forget the date, Wednesday, August 30th.

AT THE CRESCENT.
Miss Nell Craig and Bryant Washburn are featured in "The Danger of Being Lonesome," a two reel Essanay drama at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day. "When Lin Came Home" is a pathetic western feature. "The Wrong Mr. Wright" is a Vitagraph comedy drama and "Snakeville's Eugenic Marriage" is a lively Snakeville comedy. Professor McCarthy plays among other numbers the new "Tendre Amour" now being played by all the leading orchestras; the exclusive from "Lucia" and others. To-morrow Edna Mayo and Darwin Kane in a great 3 reel Essanay feature: "A Bit of Lace."

PLENTIFUL AND LARGE. — Not for some time past were codfish so plentiful or of such a large size, as those got on the local grounds yesterday and some big fares were brought to port. Of great advantage to the fishermen also was the presence of squid in abundance.
