SYMPATHY MISERS.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

There are some people who hate to give away sympathy as much as a skiffint hates to give a way money. Their heart strings are even tighter than their purse strings. I heard someone making an appeal of sympathy to a woman of this type the other day. The only response she got was a tightening of the latter's features and a "Yes, I know but just think what a hard time I have."

But Why Not Both Give And Receive Sympathy.

To tell the truth, she does have rather a miserable time, doubtless quite as hard as the woman who made the appeal for sympathy. But why can't she give sympathy and receive it in return instead of withholding it and having it withheld (as she doubtless will) in return?

The fact that you have a hard time is not a reason that you should have no tenderness in your heart for other people who also have hard rows to hoe.

On the contrary! The greatest character tragedy in the world is that of the people who have been soured instead of sweetened by adversity. They have had the adversity and they haven't had its compensation.

To Be Sure Some People Are Sympathy Greedy.

Of course there are people who abuse sympathy. I have recently seen a very striking example of that. An acquaintance of mine passed through a most bitter experience. She confided her troubles to a very dear friend and the latter proved the worth of her friendship by giving her a wealth of tender and understanding sympathy. It was like balm to her wounded spirit. Without it she might have broken down altogether. With it she should have pulled herself together. But she didn't. Instead of making an effort to be more cheerful, she permitted herself to be inglorious because that brought more sympathy. She was constantly needing to be cheered up. By and by, the too generous friend was called away on a journey, and thus forced to lean on her own strength, the lady of the many troubles at once began to develop some backbone of her own.

A Tonic Not a Drug.

Sympathy should be used as a tonic not as a drug.

To use another metaphor, sympathy is like a warm bath, at first it rests your weary muscles and stimulates you but if you continue it too long it enervates you.

To give understanding convincing sympathy and give it in the right quantities, surely this is a task for all that a friend has of tact and unselfishness!

WAR.

War is a form of violent activity by which two nations decide who shall pay the biller after the janitor has turned out the lights. This kind of a settlement is termed an indemnity, and enables the successful nation to replace everything but the lives of its men and boys.

The people are not usually consulted about the expediency of making war until they are in it up to their hips. The war-making prerogative is lodged in a limited circle of high-dominant dignitaries who are past the age limit and do not have to fight anything but the national debt. If there were a law in effect which placed combative statesmen in the front rank of the first line troops, the nations of the world would disarm faster than a discouraged distillery after a dry wave. History teaches us that war does not settle anything but the per capita tax, which is paid for several hundred years by loyal citizens who were not present at the time and had no voice in the proceedings. The people of England are still paying for the War of the Roses, which was fought with great determination and "elm clubs. There is no more expensive pastime

Patriotic Opera

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS.

The reproduction of the opera "The Magic Cup" by the pupils of the Christian Brothers of St. Patrick's Hall and Holy Cross, under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor and His Grace the Archbishop and in aid of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convalescent Hospital, was greeted by a large and appreciative audience at the Casino Theatre last night. His Excellency, the Governor and Lady Davidson, accompanied by Capt. Riley, M.C., A.D.C., Rt. Rev. Mons. McDermott, V.G., Rev. Drs. Greene and Carter and Fr. Pippy were present.

The excellence of the orchestra, the superb stage settings and realistic effects and in particular the clever acting of the boys combined to make a first rate performance. The histrionic talent displayed by those who impersonated the leading characters was appreciated by the audience in tangible form during the performance when a box of chocolates and a bunch of flowers was presented to the "Fairy Queen" (Master W. A. Ryall) and a box of chocolates to "Princess Mabel" (Master D. J. Duchesne). Master W. J. Wallace played the "King of Carribee" majestically; Master D. J. Oilplant (an English Naval Officer) was a doughty "Captain Courageous" and eventually proved an affectionate spouse to the Princess. Master J. R. Hearne, who has a reputation for being a versatile stage artist, proved an admirable "Leader of Agitators" last night. Master M. F. Eagan, "The Astrologer," and Master L. T. Carew, "Town Crier" gave faithful delineations of their parts. The Flower Girls, Fruit Girls, Reapers, Gardeners, Agitators, Conspirators, Soldiers, Sailors, Citizens, Courtiers, Life Boatmen, Fairies, Attendants, etc., won high encomiums. Their singing and deportment would do credit to professionals. Between the acts a club swinging exhibition was given by Masters Croke, Leahy, O'Donnell and Barron, to the accompaniment of Master G. Kelly, with that ease and precision which characterized their splendid training. Indeed the entire performance was highly creditable to the boys themselves, to their good and noble teachers, to Prof. Hutton, who trained the actors, and to Mr. J. C. Pippy, the Manager of the opera. The orchestra consisted of Prof. Hutton, Miss Power and Messrs. F. W. Bradshaw, Alex. W. Mews, A. Bulley and A. Stafford, and their faultless renditions contributed in no small measure to the excellence of the performance.

It occasionally happens that war is preferable to other and greater calamities, such as kicking the flag around, and the man who can sit still with untroubled pulse and "peace" under such circumstances knows nothing of the spirit which shone at Monterey and Manila. If to be unprepared is to be afraid, America is the readiest of all nations to meet such peril as may not with honor be escaped.

Blames Unions for High Prices.

Dear Sir,—We see in the papers a considerable amount of controversy between parties as to wages and strikes because they don't get this and that.

Well, Mr. Editor, may I ask what is it at the present time in most cases putting the high prices on everything? I may be wrong but I guess I shall go pretty near to hitting the nail on the head when I say that these unions are at the bottom of the whole matter. How can a shopkeeper keep down his prices or a merchant either when these unions are constantly striking for higher pay? They have to put it on the goods and we who are not in any way connected have to suffer and have our money dragged out of us to pay these higher wages. The merchant does not pay them but we do through another channel and the merchant is just as well off afterwards as he was before the strike. Is this fair on others? We know goods are increasing in price outside the country and therefore they must be high in price when they reach here. Why then have these strikes and make the merchants put on more agony not on the strikers but on the innocent who are trying to live as best they can? Is this what we call patriotism?

I was only talking to a man the other day who said: "I am not as well off to-day as I was when I was getting 80c. a day," and why, because everything is going up to meet the higher wages and the innocent must suffer for the guilty.

Trusting that I have not taken up too much of your space and thanking you in anticipation.

I remain yours sincerely,
NON-UNION.

Smart Blouses!

Our Ladies' Dept. is now displaying a remarkably choice selection of Blouses in Crepe de Chine, Silk and Georgette Crepe. These Blouses are distinctly characteristic in style and illustrate Fashion's latest fancy in sleeves and collars, the former are all long with dainty cuffs, while the latter are very deep and quaintly cut.

The new surplice neck is very much in evidence and the entire stock is as charming and up-to-date as it can possibly be.

The leading colors are Flesh, Coral and Blue, but there is a wide choice of lovely colors, also Black and Black and White.
