A UNION QUARREL.

CLEVELAND, April 3. One man was dead, another said to be dying, and a third was less seriously wounded to-day, as a result of a shooting affray at a meeting of local union number seventeen, bridge and structural iron workers, here last night. The slaver had not been apprehended early to-day. A discussion of the clause in the union rules which provided that any member who becomes a contractor and employer of labor should be forced to resign or be fined, led up to the shooting.

THE CLUETT ABANDONED.

NEW YORK, April 3. Captain Cluett and crew of six of the British schooner Rita M. Cluet were rescued early to-day from the

There is a gold rush on to Roun Township, in Northern Quebec, to Labrador, and now to the Soo district. In fact, the whole Northern district has immense areas of rock containing more or less gold, and the chief question is whether the quantit is large enough to make a real mine Gold mining will be one of Canada's greatest industries 25 years from

The Sydney Post says this:-"The Labrador gold fields are going to rival if not surpass the Klondyke, according to Mr. Bellew, who recently gave the following interview to the Ottawa Journal.

"This looks to me like the greatest gold find ever made. I was in the Klondyke during the rush period but this new field offers infinitely greater prospects. I am making all arrangements necessary for the orderly working of the field and very strict laws will be enforced.
