

C. L. B. Cadets

The First Newfoundland Regiment Church Lads Brigade Cadets yesterday marked the 33rd anniversary of their organization. Founded by the late Colonel W. M. Gee on St. Martin's Day, November 11th, 1891, it was to Newfoundland the honour of starting the 1st Overseas Company, and to-day C.L.B. Companies are all over the Empire, and boys at work trying to maintain the motto "Fight the Good Fight," and to advance Christ's Kingdom amongst the lads of all classes. The birthday of the Brigade is always commemorated by Church Services on the nearest Sunday to St. Martin's Day, and an anniversary tea and concert for the boys. Early yesterday morning officers and lads in uniform wended their way to St. Thomas's Church at 1 o'clock for Holy Communion. Rev. J. B. Elliott and W. E. Godfrey officiated. Many faces who were faithful attendants at this annual invocation were absent, but the thoughts of some of the older Brigade members brought them vividly to memory. The absent ones had joined the Church triumphant, and of these many, sleep with their gallant comrades in France, but their noble example of personal service and self-sacrifice in the years that have gone makes their presence felt if unseen with us today.

The Brigade attended St. Thomas's again in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Lt.-Col. Walter F. Rendell, C.B.E., was in command, and over six hundred all ranks on parade, including fifty-two from Portugal Cove Company, Old Comrades and Girl Guides. The Spencer College Guides, Girls' Friendly and Church of England Orange Companies were in the line, and they were a fine, well set up lot. The Battalion Brass and Bursell's Bagpipe Band were also on parade. Portugal Cove Company motored up in two trucks under command of Capt. Sheppard, O.C., and Rev. Andrew T. Tulk, with Lieuts. Miller and Somerset. Mesdames Tulk and Sheppard also came up to view the parade and visited the Armoury Headquarters. Field College Company paraded under Capt. Horsley, O.C.

The service was conducted by the Rev. of St. Thomas's. The Right Chaplain, Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Newfoundland, Revs. Andrew Tulk, H. L. Pike and W. E. Godfrey were present. Rev. W. E. Godfrey, Curate of St. Thomas's, gave the address from the 2nd Epistle to St. Peter, "Which have forsaken the right way, following the way of Balaam." The speaker referred to the anniversary of the Brigade and admonished all ranks to carry on "fighting the good fight." The full choir were present, and the officers are grateful to Prof. Herbert Stirling and the members of the choir for the excellent music, making the services to enjoyable. Lieut. Eric Jerrett was in charge of the Colour Party. Capt. L. Stick, Adjutant, was on duty and did excellent work in managing the large parade of various units, as the Armoury and Church were taxed almost to capacity. Col. R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., and Capt. N. Snow, of the C. L. B. Reserve of Officers, attended the service and occupied seats with the Mess. Full size decorations were worn. As the weather was cold the Regiment marched back to the Armoury, when Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell extended a very hearty welcome to Col. R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., for fourteen years Officer Commanding the Regiment.

A hearty welcome was also extended to Capt. N. Snow, who organized the first C.L.B. Brass Band and placed it on a solid foundation. Col. Rendell was delighted to see President Crane and his large number of Old Comrades on duty, including Capt. C. B. Dicks and Frank Miles, who did yeoman service when on the active list. Col. R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., was asked to officially present Sergt. Barrett of No. 2 Section F. Company, with the Outbridge Shield won by his men in the recent competition. He also presented the N.C.O.'s recently promoted with their Ladies Corporal, Corporal and Sergeant chevrons. Col. R. G. Rendell then addressed his old Regiment, and was much pleased to congratulate them on their appearance and numbers. He was delighted to hear in a recent visit to London whilst chatting with the authorities that amongst all the various overseas troops in London during the war, the boys of the Nfld. Regt. conducted themselves generally, in England, better than any other Colonial unit, and he was glad to hear this as they maintained their country's name. Col. R. G. Rendell received quite an ovation from the Old Comrades and all ranks present, who were delighted to see and hear his voice once more at C.L.B. Headquarters.

All ranks were glad to see Portugal Cove Company present for the first time, and hope now that the tea is broken that they will come often.
