'Certainly beats all!" they would say March 4 came; it was the day of Presdent Roosevelt's inauguration, and the doctors and gossips and people who be lieved in signs said that Flatbush ought to make a how record for the lieved to be the control of the lieved to be the lie lieved in signs said that Flatbush ought to make a boy record for itself that day. babies were reported to the gossips on that day—both girls. They were named Theodora. And everybody said that it was just an accident about those boys; things happen that way sometimes.

Next day the score jumped back and since then it has seemed to rain boys in Flatbush. Hod carrier and merchant prince, bartender and clergyman, judge and cop—it was all boys for theirs. Now and then a little girl came by way of variety. In every single case it was found that the parents of the girl babies, crop of the spring of 1905, were recluses from church and women's club society. Even before the great discovery of Director Smith, the district gossips noticed that fact and commented on it.

Then, on May Day, Director Smith announced his discovery. The Central Park Zoo had been scoring only male calves

And Director Smith found that it was due to a diet of hydrocarbons, which the same are peanuts. A wave of self-revelation swept over Flatbush. In certain houses there came a frantic call for peanuts; from before certain others, Italian hot peanut men were driven with clubs and reproaches.

Alderman John Hann, who represents Flatbush in the city council, was wiping off the rubber plant on his stoop in Park Place last Monday evening, when he was told that a delegation of ladies wanted to see him. He showed them into his study and turned up the student lamp. He recognized the president of the Shake-speare Club, and members of the executive councils of the Mothers' Club, and the Brides' Cooking Class, together with prominent church workers.

"It's about the boy babies we've come," said the president of the Shakespeare Club, who acted as spokesman.

"Oh, yes! The little boy babies! Well, I'm sure the mothers of Flatbush must be glad to have so many fine sons," said ication, Mr. Hann. It is a question of brinciple"—all the other delegates nodded at this—"is our sex to be extinguished in Flatbush? Are we, after creating an atmosphere of feminine refinement and culture, to have it destroyed in the next generation because there are none bu alien women for our sons to marry?" "Besides, girl babies are so cute," said the delegate from the Brides' Cooking

Class.

The president of the Shakespeare Club crushed her with one look.

"And so," she went on, "our clubs have met and made up a law, which we want you to get passed at the very next meeting of the aldermen. Our legal committee has drawn it up. I am certain that its form is perfect."

Alderman Hann took the document which she thrust into his hands.

PRINCES BUSY WITH BOOKS Portugal's Royal Boys Study Hard

and Go Early to Bed.

London, July 6.—A highly interesting event took place at Necessidades Palace when the Duque de Beja, the King and Queen of Portugal's youngest son was examined by his professors on the different subjects he has been studying of late. The king and queen, Crown Prince Luiz Filippe, were present throughout the examination, as also Condessa de Seisal, in waiting on Queen Amelia; Conde de Sabugosa, Conde d'Arnoso and Conde da Ribeira The young prince was examing French by M. Boeye, in German by Kerausch, in English by Mr. Alfred King n Portuguese by Rev. Mr. Fladeiro, and finally in mathematics (the scholar's favorite subject, and which he shows astonishing ability) by Senor M. Leitao.

By the way, the following time table, showing how the King and Queen of Portugal's two sons pass their days, may prove interesting: They rise at 6, and sit down to their books until 8:30. Then follows half an hour's interruption, after

According to the best data at hand Andrew Carnegie is, up to date, a greater giver than Rockefeller. Car-negle has already given $100,000,000 to his pet philanthropy, the libraries. Of this sum the United States received zas, in Florida. It has seen many bloody frays in the opening up of what is now the paradise of the south.
