Publicity Agent Carruthers Issues Open Letter to the Citizens.

TOGETHER ALL

If Citizens Co-Operate the Result Will Soon Be Apparent in Greater Business in London.

Mr. Charles E. Carruthers, the city publicity agent, has issued the following open letter to the citizens: "Citizens of London,-In entering on the duties of publicity agent of the city of London, there are certain facts that I would call to the attention of the 50,000 residents who are interested in the welfare of the city and desire to see it assume its proper place nong the cities of Canada. "Every citizen can aid materially, and, I am sure, will co-operate with me in making London the commercial centre of Ontario, which place is rightfully hers by right of location, and shipping facilities. "We are proud of a city that will be one of the greatest radial centres, and it is incumbent upon us to talk London at every opportunity. Compare it with other cities, and there is much to be proud of, in spite of any talk to the contrary. "Radial lines mean the increasing of business in the city, both for the wholesaler and retailer, by the opening up for London of territory that now does its shopping elsewhere. It also brings the surrounding territory is on the ground, and not a new-in close touch with the city, and the comer, and therefore deserves the best intercourse thus afforded means business impetus that will be felt by citizens. the entire city.

The next heard of him was in a dise patch received vesterday which said that he had been arrested in Buffalo on a charge of grand larceny, and that when he was arrested and searched a jewel box bearing the name of Klein & Binkley, Hamilton, was found in his possession. The Buffalo police investigated and found the ring in a pawnshop where the man had pawned it for $200.

Police Notified. The local police were notified, and the news of the swindle broken to the Klein & Binkley people. So sure was the firm that the man was straight and that a mistake had been made that it took the trouble to wire New York as to the value of the check. The answer showed that the police were right and that the check was worthless. It was not until the reply from New York was received that the firm was convinced that it had been pipede the check given in payment for the ring being a forgery. The man will be charged in Buffala
