Sister-in-Law of London Man Receives Word From Flanders, France.

The first letter received here from a member of the Princess Pat's Regiment since the notable engagement in which this Canadian Regiment so distinguished itself at the front has been received from Flanders, France. Miss Betty Morton, sister-in-law of Wendell Holmes, manager of Mallagh's book store, this city, is in receipt of a communication from Sergt. R. C. Wigney, attached to Head-quarters Company, P. P. C. No. 9, Sergt. Wigney Headquarters Company, P. P. C. L. I., British Expeditionary Force; On Active Service.

Dear Friend,-Well, we have moved at ast, and have left Winchester some time now. I can't tell you exactly where we are, as we are not allowed to, and all these letters are censored. Anyway, we are still on the map, and fit and well, and doing O. K. We are billeted about peret in different farms, etc. I am sleepin an old barn in a stack of straw and beyond being a bit cold at night and a bit ticky (i. e., there are a lot of all bugs about), it is not too bad at There are also quite a few rats in the straw, but as long as I once get to sleep, they don't worry me any. We are getting lots to eat. Plenty of tinned "Bully Beef" and biscuits, and jam sometimes, cheese and good tea, and w can now and then buy bread, so it is not at all bad so far. There are miles of round here and it is pretty hard work digging them and very mudduring the day. You can hear the boom
