HOTRUM DECLARES

STAR WITNESSES STORIES DIFFER. ON VITAL POINT.

TORONTO, May 12.-In the trial of Roy Hotrum, who is charged jointly with William McFadden, with the murder of Leonard Cecil Sabine, druggist, this city, on the night of March 5, but is being tried separately at the assizes here, the crown this afternoon conbegin tomorrow morning. Five or six cided today by his counsel, W. K. Murphy. A verdict will probably be

The crown's star witnesses, Walter Hulse, driver of the motor car in which the alleged murderers were taken near the scene of the crime, and John Conley, who was of the party, but remained in the car while Hotrum and McFadden were away on the business of robbing Sabine's store, according to their evidence, both testified at length today.

Their evidence was similar in many regards, but differed on a vital point.

would have a bearing on fixing the identity of the man who fired the fatal Hulse testified that after Hotrum and paratory to starting on their errand. Conley asked McFadden if he had revolver, and the latter replied that he had not one. Different Story.

Conley. in his evidence, said he did not hear Hotrum say anything about having to punch a man to get away. Conley said he heard McFadden say cluded its case and the defence will "I had to plug him to get away." He begin tomorrow morning. Five or six witnesses will be called in behalf of Hotrum. Whether the accused himself will testify had not been definitely de- a gun, and swore that he had seen gun in McFadden's hand the night of the murder.
William Wallace, assistant inspector returned tomorrow afternoon. of detectives of Toronto, who had charge of the squad that arrested the party, stated that in a kit bag in the room where Conley and Hotrum were arrested he found two .32 revolvers, on of which was loaded. The bullet that killed Sabine, he said, could not have been fired from either of these revolvers.

A Vital Point.
