NEVER WEARY IN FIGHTING WHITE PLAGUE

Women's Sanatorium Aid Shows Splendid Achievement For Money Expended.

Re-Elects Mrs. John Stevely President For Twelfth Term.

With a grant of $3,500 from the United Welfare Fund for the past year the Women's Sanatorium Aid has been looking after 500 families that have one or more sufferers from tuberculosis, providing the nourishing food which otherwise would be lacking, yet which is so indispensable in effecting cure, seeing that the patients have the proper clothing, looking after dependent families while the bread-winner is in the sanatorium. Not only is the mission of the aid abetting the efforts of medical science in curing the disease, but still more important, prevention from its spread and persistent measures towards stamping it out.

Reference to all this service to the community was made at the annual meeting held on Tuesday afternoon, a particularly enjoyable as well as interesting event, owing to the fact that it took place at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson, "Woodholme," London Township.

For the twelfth time, Mrs. John Stevely was the unanimous choice for the presidency, and other officers elected, as their names were submitted by the nominating committee, of which Mrs. A. E. Miller was convener, were: First vice-president, Mrs. T. H. Purdom; second vice-president, Miss Minnie Stewart; third vice-president, Mrs. W. F. D. Jarvis; recording secretary, Mrs. B. C. McCann; treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Greer.

Assist at Birthday Party. The Sanatorium Aid, with the Ladies' Auxiliary Board, will act as joint hostesses Saturday next with the London Health Association at the birthday party of the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium, to be held at the institution, in order to afford the public an opportunity of seeing the tremendous development.

Mrs. Joseph Judd was appointed convener to take charge of the tea-room and Mrs. Ibbotson Leonard convener of a committee to look after the fees, which will be served from a marquee on the lawn.

Emphasis was laid by the retiring secretary, Mrs. H. C. McNeil, in her report, on the fact that the greatest work of the aid is done with the children. Having built the sanatorium as its first big effort, the aid now has from one family alone four children being treated there, lying side by side in cots, while other members of the family are at home, safe from infection. Detecting the disease in its early stages with the children, perfect cures are the almost invariable rule.

The Sanatorium Aid is in reality a clearing house for the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium, it was stressed, at the station, embracing an excellent many others, Ramachandrapuram, the headquarters of the leper mission.

The treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Greer, stated that during the past year $1,102.24 has been expended for groceries, $1,619.42 for milk, $257.30 for meat, and $200 has been allowed the two nurses to use in cases of emergency.

KEEP UP RECORD FOR RAPID WORK

Owing to the Holy Name celebration of Sunday, June 11, and the celebration of the Feast of Corpus Christi next Sunday, the June meeting of the Catholic Women's League has been postponed until Sunday, 25th. The meetings will then be discontinued until the autumn, although the social work in which the league has been actively engaged for months will be carried on as usual.

From the proceeds of "The Little Tycoon," successfully presented some weeks ago under the society's auspices, the league has on hand a donation of $200 pledged to the War Memorial Children's Hospital. The members are desirous of having some special articles of furniture or equipment bought with the subscription bearing the name of the Catholic Women's League. Under the circumstances, they are waiting to make the payment until decision is reached by the hospital committee with regard to its use.

London's division Catholic Women's League holds the record in all Canada for quickness and efficiency with which organization was completed in the diocese by the president, Mrs. B. C. McCann, and Mrs. Joseph Leach, president of the London (city) subdivision. Paralleling the 100 per cent organization of parishes in the diocese were named the great extent of illiteracy, the caste system which would make a general uprising herculean task, owing to lack of cohesion, and the lack of background and experience in democratic government.

"I talked to one of the captains of industry in Calcutta," said the speaker, "a man of education and training. We discussed Lloyd George's bill for autonomy in India, which had been

STRESS JAPANESE NOTE.

The Japanese note, which is to predominate in decorations, arrangement of booths, costumes, etc., those in the Knox Church choir garden party, to be held Friday afternoon in the grounds of "Beechwood," the home of Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore and Mrs. Gartshore, South London, will be further emphasized by the presentation, by special request, of the Japanese operetta, "O Hara San," by the choir, under the direction of Charles E. Percy. Another feature which has aroused pleasurable anticipation is the promised presentation of "Earth's Awakening," by pupils of Miss Edith Wynne-Pryce, physical director of the Y. W. C. A. A most picturesque event as witnessed in the armories some weeks ago, its charm will undoubtedly be much enhanced by the sylvan setting.

ENTERTAIN SUPREME DEPUTY.

An interesting event for the Ladies of the Macabees of the city was the meeting Monday evening in the Alma Block of Olive Hive, at which special guests of honor were Miss Elfrida Greene of Toronto, supreme deputy of the Ladies of the Macabees in Ontario, and the members of Forest City Hive of London. The new ritual was most clearly and ably exemplified by Miss Greene. At the close of the meeting a tempting supper was served, under the convener'ship of Mrs. L. Kindred, assisted by Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. M. Haldane.

ENTER STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.

The Ladies' Aid of Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church is the first organization this year to put itself on record as intending to hold a strawberry festival. The event has been fixed for the evening of June 20.

AID HOSPITAL.

Mrs. C. T. Campbell, honorary treasurer of War Memorial Children's Hospital committee, gratefully acknowledges the following contributions to the fund: Womens Teachers Guild, London, towards crib, $250.00; Old London Golf Club, towards crib, $74.00; Shamrock Basketball team, London, $250.00; Chesley Avenue Mothers' Club, for material, $10.00; Advertiser Mail-Box, per Cynthia Grey, $53.90; Trafalgar Chapter, I. MISSIONARY STARTED

INDIA'S FIRST PAPER

Lecturing on Telugu Mission, D. D. McTavish Emphasizes Far-Reaching Influences.

As an illustration of the enduring and far-reaching influence of foreign mission work, D. D. McTavish of Toronto, lecturing on Tuesday evening under the auspices of Talbot Street Baptist Mission Band, made the statement that William Carey, founder of the foreign mission movement, introduced the first newspaper in India about the year 1761, called "The Statesman."

"The paper," said Mr. McTavish, "is still published in Calcutta, and has the largest circulation among the English-speaking people of any paper there. Since it is published in English, it is read by all in India, and have a copy of it at the present time in my house in Toronto. Reference in this connection was made to the fact that William Carey, as a Baptist, had been the founder not only of Protestant, but Baptist missionary work in India."

Having recently returned from a trip around the world, the lecturer dealt especially with the subject of "Our Indian Telugu Mission," which he graphically described and vividly illustrated with lantern slides. The chain of missions, he stated, is established north of Madras, among the Telugu people, one of the oldest races in India, the station embracing among many others, Ramachandrapuram, the headquarters of the leper mission.

In reference to the fact that the audience was a mixed one, including a large number of children as well as adults, the stories of the mission fields in India, the station embracing among many others, Ramachandrapuram, the headquarters of the leper mission, and his impressions of what Buddhism and other isms have done for India, especially for the grownups.

"You can only judge a system, religious or otherwise, by its fruits," said the lecturer. "In India, except for the cases which have known the influence of Christianity, I found a country covered with idols, a people in a state of poverty and ignorance." Striking examples were cited of splendid service which is being rendered by converts who have become doctors, and otherwise used their ability to promote the welfare of their own people.

Concerning the unrest in India and its causes, much was attributed to the after-war conditions, in which high prices figured. Again, numbers of young men from India have been going away to British and other universities. With their education, they have got the idea that want to govern India. "But that does not say degrees fit them for such a task," said Mr. McTavish.

Among insuperable difficulties in the way of self-government at present were named the great extent of illiteracy, the caste system which would make a general uprising herculean task, owing to lack of cohesion, and the lack of background and experience in democratic government.

"I talked to one of the captains of industry in Calcutta," said the speaker, "a man of education and training. We discussed Lloyd George's bill for autonomy in India, which had been

THIRTEEN FROWNS, BUT PARTIES GO ON Tuesday Is Popular Day For Outdoor Fetes Despite Superstition.

Many organizations, church and otherwise, which chose Tuesday, June 13, for picnics, garden parties and other outdoor events for which the month is usually the most ideal of the year, had reason to feel they were bringing down around their ears all the baleful prophecies connected with the No. "13," as they viewed the clouds which persisted in hanging lower and lower in the afternoon. With commendable optimism which justified itself, plans were carried through, and barring the need of extra wraps and a marked preference for hot drinks over cold, nobody was the worse.

ST. JOHN'S GUILD PICNIC.

The "best kind of" weather for baseball and sports, declared the members of the Ladies' Guild of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, who brought their long, busy and useful season to a close with the annual picnic at Springbank Park Tuesday afternoon. Numbers of husbands and friends of the ladies enjoyed the event with their presence, participating in the ball game and sharing in the general enjoyment.

Acting as picnic convener, Mrs. E. J. Liddicoat took a heavy weight of responsibility from the shoulders of the energetic president, Mrs. A. R. Roux. Rev. A. L. G. Clarke, rector of the church, acted as convener of sports, the program of races including such novel and amusing features as balloon, potato, and driving-the-nail races. A bountiful and tempting picnic high tea was served at 6 o'clock.

THE GARDEN FETE.

For the garden fete held by the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the glamor of fairyland was thrown over the attractive grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Manning on Queen's avenue, by the addition of a rose-embowered trellis entrance, arches twined with countless ox-eye daisies and numbers of Japanese lanterns which twinkled picturesquely when the lights were turned on. Many cosy corners for chatting were to be found on the grounds, and a inviting place with "comfy" chairs and clusters of flowers to give a decorative touch. Owing to the sprinkling of rain tea was served there in the afternoon.

While Mrs. H. E. Boomer is president of the aid, Mrs. S. L. Taylor acted as general convener of the garden party, ably assisted by Mesdames S. M. Kennedy, A. E. Barbour, A. D. Jordan, J. E. Keneley, side, Johnston, J. Henderson, Kendall, Frank Harley and Alex. Harvey. Special honor guests of the afternoon were Dr. Wallace Crawford and Mrs. Crawford, returned missionaries from China. Dr. Crawford, having a happy reply to an address of greeting, Lila Grant and Lillian McCormick added much to the enjoyment of the guests with recitations.

Mrs. G. F. Brickenden and Mrs. C. L. Mara poured out tea, Mrs. J. S. Barnard and Mrs. Alex. Harvey, Sen. Cling the love. Two little girls, Frances Williams and Barbara Gifford, have the thrilling experience of seeing six little Dresden china figures come to life and step out of a cabinet to dance a gavotte of grace and dignity. The "china figures" were portrayed by Beth Harkness, Allen and Natalie Beltz, Lucy Noeham, Eleanor Green and Shirley Fraser, who were taught the dance by Miss Mary Manley.

The garden party held by Olive Hive, Ladies of the Macabees, in Queen's Park in the evening had as a strong drawing card an excellent musical program presented by the Salvation Army Band. Ice cream and light refreshments found a ready sale, notwithstanding the chill in the air. Mrs. A. E. Tutt convoked the event.

Introduced some time before, The opinion of the Hindoo gentleman was that it wouldn't work, yet they wanted it, just the same.

"Why?" I asked. "Because we want to govern ourselves. We have confidence in the British judges, and any in those of us who get self-government, in fifty years we will probably have chaos. It wouldn't work, but we want to govern ourselves."

Benjamin Foulkes, president of the band, presided, and Lavina Chute gave the scripture lesson, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Bowley Green, offering prayer. Miss Beryl Wainwright contributed a solo.

MILLS-McDONALD.

A quiet and pretty wedding took place at 32 Rogers avenue, when Ora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald, was married to Herbert W. Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Mills. Rev. Mr. Wright officiating. Following the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Mills left on a honeymoon via Port Arthur and Duluth on a honeymoon.

OFFERS PATCHES.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again bothering you. Now, will you do me a favor? Would you please send me some cinnamon vines and also her address, for which I am inclosing a mite?

Someone was asking for patches. If that person would send me her address I could send her a few.

The bulbs are already on the way to you, Johnquill, also Cinnamon Vine's address. Thank you for remembering our hospital fund with a mite.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Papworth are leaving for England via New York on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Nichols have returned home after spending several months in England and on the continent.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mrs. John Macpherson in her serious illness at her home in Elmwood avenue.

Mrs. Henry C. Houghton left this week for New York, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Keay, Maplewood, New Jersey.

While in the city this week Mr. D. D. McTavish of Toronto has been a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brown, Cheapside street.

The troupeau tea which Mrs. David Cowan, "Birkhill," is giving Wednesday afternoon in honor of her bride-elect daughter, Miss Isabel, is a smart event in the day's social calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Boyd have returned home after a delightful motor trip to Sarnia, where they were guests for the week-end of Mrs. Boyd's mother, Mrs. Bligh.

Mrs. Wilkinson, returned missionary from Japan, who was a guest of honor at the meeting and tea this week of the W. M. S. of the First Methodist Church, visited while in town in the home of Mrs. N. S. Williams, Cheapside street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Sharpe, Wellington street north, have left for their summer home at Leamington, where they will be joined, the middle of July, by their daughter, Miss Madeline, who is enjoying a motor trip in the meantime through the Adirondacks.

While in town this week, paying an official visit to Olive Hive, 309, Ladies of the Macabees, Miss Elfrida Greene of Toronto, supreme deputy of Ontario, was the guest of Mrs. E. E. Lyon, Wortley road. She left on Tuesday for Chatham in connection with business of the order.

Misses Blanche Tancock, Shirley White, Helen Patterson, Constance Blackburn, Margaret Glass and a number of young ladies from Montreal and Hamilton are spending the summer in British Columbia, making Naranatta, in the beautiful Okanagan Valley, their headquarters. While there they will visit other places of interest. They report having had a delightful trip by rail and steamer.

Mrs. J. D. Tyrell of Toronto has arrived in town to spend the week-end with her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. T. Campbell, Queens avenue. Mrs. Tyrell is a prominent child welfare worker in Toronto and has been for a length of time president of the infants' home board, which has led in Canada in progressive methods with regard to the placement of children in private homes, instead of keeping them in an institution beyond the length of time necessary for "clearing house" measures.

One of the charming events of the week, in honor of the much-feted bride-elect, Miss Isabel Cowan, was the tea party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Russell Beattie in her cosy home in Oxford street. Quantities of pennies added a gay decorative touch to the living-room, while the tea table in the dining-room, presided over by Mrs. Gordon Hunt and Mrs. E. W. Grange, was daintily and prettily adorned with pink roses. Those invited included Mrs. Hugh McCrimmon, Mrs. E. W. Grange, Mrs. Gordon Hunt, Mrs. Russell Croden, Mrs. Richard Cronyn, Mrs. Archibald Hunt, Mrs. Eric Reid, and her guest, Miss Helen Reid of Toronto. Mrs. Gordon Ingram, Mrs. Wilson Purdom, Misses Dindy Cox, Angela and Eleanor McPhillips, Isabel and Marion Coles, Doris Belton, Eula White, Baby Moore, and Kathleen Cowan.

While much business was transacted at the annual meetings of the Women's Sanatorium Aid, held Tuesday afternoon at "Woodholme," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson, the social side was a delightful feast. Following the meeting, a delicious afternoon tea was served from a table decked with flowers. Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. Will Falls poured out tea and coffee. Mrs. A. E. Miller cutting a mammoth strawberry shortcake, which had the place of honor. Among those noticed who were present were Mrs. John Stevely, Mrs. John Stevenson, Mrs. J. C. Judd, Mrs. Rapsley, Mrs. David Arnott, Mrs. W. F. D. Jarvis, Mrs. W. Waugh, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. C. H. Ziegler, Mrs. Howard Higgins, Mrs. H. C. McBride, Mrs. Fred Beltz, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Frank Jewell, Mrs. B. C. McCann, Mrs. A. B. Greer, Miss McCann.

WESTLAND-PALMER.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Palmer, of Regina, Sask., to Curtis Owen, son of Mrs. A. M. Westland, took place at 3 o'clock at Devon Avenue Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Rev. Logan Geggie, pastor of the church, officiating. The bride was appropriately gowned in white satin crepe. Among those present were the bride's father and sister Ethel of Regina, and Mrs. R. C. Jamieson of Chicago, sister of the groom. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Westland left for a trip to New York.

WHITE RIBBONERS RETAIN PRESIDENT

Re-elect Mrs. Ashplant by Acclamation—Are Supporting Budget Well.

Mrs. Hubert Ashplant was re-elected by acclamation president of the London Women's Christian Temperance Union at the annual meeting, presided over by Mrs. May R. Thornley, in the headquarters, Clarence street, on Tuesday afternoon. In a touching little address, Mrs. Ashplant thanked the union for the confidence shown in her, as manifested by the re-election, expressing also her heartfelt gratitude for the loyal support given her by the members, and their sympathy expressed in many ways in her recent bereavement and illness.

Mrs. H. W. Paddell was the choice for corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. R. White re-elected recording secretary, Mrs. Amy Patterson re-elected treasurer, and Mrs. J. Chapman named first vice-president. Owing to the length of time occupied, it was necessary to adjourn at 5 o'clock without completing the business. The rest of the executive and board will be elected at a later meeting.

The treasurer, Mrs. Patterson, presented a most encouraging report, stating the total receipts for the year amounted to $5,208.30, including returns from the dining-room at the Western Fair. Already $305 has been paid in for the budget fund, for educational and missionary extension work of the Ontario Provincial Union. The balance on hand to start a new year is $831.

A solo by Mrs. Philippo during a lull in business was a pleasing break.

RHODES-STEVENSON.

An interesting event drew a large gathering to the Knox Church, Cayuga, on Saturday, June 11, when Elizabeth Cole, daughter of Mr. and the late John Stevenson, was quietly married to George, son of Thomas and Mrs. Rhodes. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. G. Blake, the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. N. MacKinnon of Caledonia. The bride was unattended, and looked very charming in her chic suit of gray homespun with Alice blue hat and armful of lovely pink roses. Miss W. Ralston, organist of the church, played the wedding march. At the close of the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple left by motor for a trip to Buffalo and other points.

A DECEMBER BRIDE.

Dear Miss Grey,—Not seeing my last letter in print, I will try again. I saw where the rats had been at the mail in London, so perhaps they ate my letter and swallowed the mite, so I am sending another, and will you please send me a packet of pink aster seeds, Miss Grey? A little was asking if Japanese roses can be grown from the seed. Yes; a neighbor close by had two lovely plants from the seed, but mine were a failure. I am going to try again. Another boxite asked about marmalade. The secret of good marmalade is very slow boiling for three hours before sugar is put in. If the fruit is not thoroughly cooked, adding sugar, your marmalade will be very dark with a peculiar flavor and fruit will be hard. Grape fruit makes the best marmalade, as it jells so easily, and is a good spring tonic. Well, dear Miss Grey, I'll fade away, and call again another day. With best wishes to Cynthia and boxites.

A FEW QUESTIONS.

Dear Miss Grey,—I noticed "Flower Bell" inquired after a cookie recipe, which, I think, must be the one I am inclosing. I made them for my boy when in Siberia, and mentioned it in the Mail-Box. I keep a recipe book in which I write out any recipes I wish to keep as they easily slip out of clippings.

Ginger cookies that will keep:

1 cup molasses, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter or dripping, 2 eggs, 1 small tablespoon of ginger, 1 small tablespoon soda. Cream sugar and shortening, add eggs well beaten, also ginger and molasses; dissolve soda in a very little hot water and add to the molasses before putting it with the eggs, etc.

Stir in as much flour as you possibly can with a spoon, then let stand 2 hours. Make with hands into small balls (flattened slightly), and dip one side in granulated sugar. Bake in moderate oven.

AUNT MARIA.

Thank you, Aunt Maria for the cookie. I think it is a splendid idea to write out the recipes, as I know from experience how they slip out of a cook book.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Dear Miss Grey,—Many thanks for cinnamon bulbs, which reached me this a.m. Shall be anxious to get them planted and watch them grow.

Inclosed you will find several packages of poppy seeds. The seeds were taken from very lovely plants, and their colors multifarious. Hope those who receive them have good luck. I rather

I heard the other day what I thought a good suggestion, re making salad dressing: Instead of using salad oil or butter, a can of condensed milk was used as a substitute with splendid results. Have not tried it, but intend to and shall let the readers know how it turns out. It is supposed to give a rich, creamy taste, far superior to either butter or oil. I am passing this on for what it is worth. Again thanking you for kindness and promptness in sending bulbs.

With best wishes, sincerely yours, L. K. CAMPBELL, Hon Treasurer Hospital Fund.

WANTS A PATTERN.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see by your paper that Cinnamon Vine has some more bulbs. If it would not be too much trouble, will you send me one to try, as I think it would be lovely? Has anyone an embroidered centerpiece pattern about a ten-inch one, to be worked in colored silks, that they will lend me? Thanking you in advance, M. M. I am mailing you the bulbs, which I hope are satisfactory. Thank you for the hospital mite. If anyone wishes to send you a pattern they may have your address from the Mail-Box.
