Last of the Season:

To-morrow's half-holiday is the last of the summer series, and to-day's early closing ends the 5 o'clock movement for the present.

We believe in considering the welfare of salespeople. We also believe in considering the interests of shoppers.

Closing at 5 o'clock daily and at 1 o'clock Saturdays during the summer months is a wise move every way. Judged by the sales increase it is a most emphatic success.

Toronto Opera House, Not Play This Season.

Mrs. Langtry will not play in Toronto this coming season. She has notified her manager, T. H. French, that she is not coming to America, and has sent over an agent to adjust her broken contracts.

The reason for this sudden change of plans is said to be that Mrs. Langtry may be married again soon in England.

"The reason Mrs. Langtry gave for not coming," says Mr. French, "is that she is ill and could not stand the fatigue of an American tour, with its presented with the same superb scenic effects and the same excellent cast as during their presentation in New York last season. which is fast increasing among the young men of the period. It is an age of nervousness; nervous excitement, nervous weakness and debility is the growing malady of the day. Minds are over-burdened in school, the pleasures of social life follow business worry; intemperance, sexual excesses or abuses over excite the already enfeebled nerves and result in exhausting diseases or drains upon the nervous system.

It's a drag and a handicap to every young man to be a sufferer from nervous debility or weakness, low spirits, irritable temper, impaired memory, less of will-power, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from pernicious habits often contracted through ignorance of nature's laws. The wreck of constitution, weakened vitality and manly power, following such habits would be a sorry ending to life in this splendid age of learning and labor. It will fast become an age of unsettled brains and shattered nerves unless our young men know themselves.
