A THANKFUL MOTHER.

"I thank you with all my heart for what Baby's Own Tablets have done for my little girl," says Mrs. Antoine Charrette, Jr. of St. Boniface, Que. "When I began giving her the Tablets she seemed to be pining away, but after using less than a box she was rapidly gaining and she is now a fine, fat, healthy little one, and I write you this, as the acknowledgment of a mother who'll never forget what Baby's Own Tablets have done for her child." Letters like this bring hope and comfort to all mothers who have feeble or sickly children. Baby's Own Tablets will cure all the minor ailments and can be given just as safely to a new born baby as to a well grown child. If you cannot get these Tablets from your dealer write the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. and get them at 25c a box.

Sam Jones Drops Dead on a Train.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 15.—"Sam" Jones, the noted evangelist, dropped dead this morning in an Oklahoma, Choctaw, and Gulf train near Little Rock.

Mr. Jones' home is at Cartersville, Ga. He was 55 years old, having been born in Alabama in 1847. He would have been 59 years old to-morrow. He was admitted to the Georgia bar in 1869, but his drinking habits soon put an end to his career as a lawyer. In 1872 he was converted, and was admitted to the ministry of the Methodist Church, South. Since then he had preached and lectured almost continuously, his eccentricities of speech and manner making him popular on the platform. He toured for some years in partnership with Sam Small, who relapsed into intemperate habits, and who was recently reconverted at Torrey and Alexander meetings.

Decent Kind of Thief.

Carman, Man., Oct. 15.—On Friday last $55 was stolen from the till in the C. P. R. station during the absence of Mr. King, the agent. Mr. King was the loser as he would have had to reimburse the company. The burglars evidently got wind of this, and considerably wrote Mr. King a note, telling him he would find the money at a certain part of the station. The money came to hand, and Mr. King appreciates the compliment.

FAREWELL.

Farewell faithful friends, I must now bid adieu. To those joys and those pleasures, I've tasted with you.

We labored together united in heart, But now I must leave you, and soon we must part.

My labors here are over and I must be gone: But I leave you not friendless to struggle alone, Be watchful and prayerful and Jesus will stay, Cling close to the Saviour, let him lead the way.

Farewell, my dear young friends, I leave you likewise, And hope I shall meet you with Christ in the skies.

Oh! who will turn back and the Saviour deny? Like Judas, the traitor, deny him and die, Farewell, trembling sinner, sad time is with you My heart sinks within me to bid you adieu.

One step back or forward may settle your doom Mid the glories of heaven or eternity's gloom. Farewell every hearer, I now turn away No more may we meet till the great Judgment Day.

Though absent in body I'll be with you in prayer And I'll meet you in heaven, there's no parting there. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, Prepare us Dear Saviour for yonder blest home.

REV. A. E. DOAN, London, Sept., 1906.

The defendant did not appear.

Ontario Bank Bills Good As Gold.

The public need have no fear about the worth of Ontario Bank Bills. It is understood that the Bank of Montreal, which contemplates taking over the institution has undertaken to guarantee the Ontario Bank's circulation. Besides this all the Canadian Banks are compelled by law to maintain with the Dominion Government at Ottawa a percentage of security against their note circulation. The aggregate security of all the 35 Canadian chartered banks thus maintained at Ottawa, may be drawn upon to make good the notes issued by any one of the thirty-five. This gives an ample guarantee to all holders of Ontario Bank bills.

Munreal, Oct. 13.—It was officially announced at eleven o'clock to-day that the Bank of Montreal had taken over the affairs of the Ontario Bank.

The depositors will be paid in full, as will of course, the noteholders.

Whether the stockholders can be paid the face values of their shares remains to be seen.

Congregational Superintendency.

Embro, Oct. 15.—Rev. Wm. T. Still Crying for Help.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Thomas Southworth, superintendent of Ontario colonization, says the slackening of immigration during the winter months was embarrassing to the work of the department in furnishing help to the many farmers who are constantly enquiring for it.

Over 600 unfilled applications were taken up recently, and the farmers communicated with, in case their vacancies should have been filled. Replies to these enquiries are now coming, and in every case help is still required.

An application for help from an Englishman out of work was received, and on investigation it was found that he had been in steady employment at $2 a day.

"I couldn't stay in such a small place," he explained. "There were only 500 people there."

He was not assisted.

Rev. Father Guam, of Wyoming, left last week on a vacation trip to New York, Baltimore, Washington and other eastern cities. He was accompanied by his brother from La Salette.
