Eleven Cents More Gives You the Personal Touch---By Telephone!

Why use a sales letter when for an average additional outlay of 11 cents you can talk with your man?

The average sales letter costs 29 cents.

The average Long Distance Telephone call in this Province costs about 40 cents.

The difference in cost is slight; the difference in effectiveness is great.

The Telephone Talk gives you the personal touch---that invaluable factor in selling---and you get your answer right away.

NORTH RANGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Avar Marshall and family from Bear River, were the Sunday guests of her brother, Mr. J. V. Andrews.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Franklin was the largest ever held in our church, there being 25 cars there from Digby. Her remains were laid to rest in the North Range Cemetery, beside her husband who predeceased her 18 years ago.

Quite a number attended the quarterly meeting at Plympton on the 19th and 14th.

HAMPTON.

Mr. Harold Chute is visiting his mother for a few weeks.

Mr. Harold Graves of Port Lorne, spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. Charlie Cropley.

Mr. Geo. Brown of Clarence, spent Sunday 17th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Foster.

Sorry to report Mr. Bennett Farnsworth still in poor health.

The salmon fishermen in this village have about completed their weirs. We wish them all success.

CLEMENTSPORT

"The Queen of the Basin."

The D. A. R. have taken a great interest in improving their station here and beautifying the grounds. The tulip bed is in full bloom and a magnificent sight. It is receiving most favorable comment from the travelling public.

Mrs. M. C. McCormick of Annapolis Royal, was here Wednesday to see her mother, Mrs. Amos Burns, who is very ill.

The Rev. A. M. McNinch of Springhill, came on Thursday 14th inst. and is visiting his son, Mr. Sable McNinch, for a few days. He says that the labor situation in Springhill is serious enough.

Mrs. Carl Stronach and baby of Clark's Harbour, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Rawding.

The funeral of the late Miss Ethel Cossitt, who died on Thursday at Canard, took place from her brother's residence, Smith's Cove, on Saturday at 3 p.m. The Rev. A. W. L. Smith officiating. Interment at Joggin's Bridge.

The representative of the Brookfield creameries, Truro, N. S., was calling on his patrons here on Friday, 15th inst. Their ice cream is largely used here and is most popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Foden, who have been spending the winter here at the Lucerne Hotel, left on Tuesday 19th inst., for Clifton, Colchester Co., en route for England, sailing about the 6th of June. While here Mr. and Mrs. Foden have taken a great interest in church affairs especially in the choir of St. Edward's. They have made many friends who wish them success, and hope they come again to see us.

Mr. S. Abbott, our popular station agent, went on his holidays on Saturday 16th inst. He is being relieved by Mr. H. E. Hoyt of Windsor, to whom we extend a hearty welcome.

Rev. G. M. Ambrose, Secretary of Canadian Bible Society will preach next Sunday as follows:
Clementsvalle, Baptist Church, 11 a.m.; Clementsport, Methodist church 3 p.m.; Bear River, Methodist church United Service, 7.30 p.m.

While in Clementsport, Rev. G. M. Ambrose will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. L. Smith at the rectory.

S. S. CONVENTION AT GRANVILLE FERRY.

Granville Ferry.—The District Sunday School Convention took place Wednesday afternoon and evening in the Methodist church. Rev. W. C. Machum, Executive and Boy's Work Secretary of the Maritime Religious Educational Council, was present.

Rev. M. H. MacIntosh, of Annapolis Royal, was in the chair. Mrs. James Berry acted as Secretary. The reports from the different Sunday Schools were very encouraging and show a great interest in being taken.

Mrs. James Berry read an instructive paper at the afternoon session. The Nominating Committee, Mrs. Wade, Annapolis Royal; Mrs. Burnie, Litchfield; H. Laura Hardy, Granville Ferry, appointed the officers for the ensuing year, as follows:—President, Rev. M. H. MacIntosh; Vice-President, Rev. H. Hartien; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. James Berry.

The evening service was very enjoyable and instructive. Mr. Machum delivered an address on Sunday School work, and spoke of the benefit of trained leadership. He also laid emphasis on the Summer Schools and Girls and Boys Camps, which are to be held at Wolfville and Pinehurst during the months of June and July.

The Annapolis Valley Quartette were heard in two well rendered selections.
