GRAND LODGE OF QUEBEC.

THE Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Quebec was held last month. There was a good attendance of representatives from the Province. M. W. Bro. J. H. Graham occupied the chair. After ordinary routine business, connected with perfecting the credentials of representatives, the members from the Lodges recently under Canada and now affiliating with the Grand Lodge of Quebec, were introduced by the Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. Dunbar, and cordially welcomed. The Grand Master then read his annual address as follows :---

ADDRESS.

BRETHREN,—This day becomes memorable in the annals of Freemasonry in the Province of Quebec.

Seven years' discussion of constitutional principles is ended.

All differences hitherto existing between the M. W. the Grand Lodge of Canada and this Grand Body have been happily adjusted.

Jurisdiction within our territory has been formally withdrawn,—due recognition has been most fraternally extended to us;—our Grand Representative, M. W. Bro. T. D. Harrington, has been most honorably and heartily received,—the consummation of all which this day, and the honorable and perfect union now most harmoniously effected between the daughter Lodges of "Canada" in this jurisdiction, and this Grand Lodge is, I am sure, a source of profound satisfaction and deep heart-felt joy to every one of you; and to every true Mason of what ever Registry he may, hitherto, have been; and I am confident that this will prove to be the beginning of a new era of prosperity to the Craft throughout the entire Province, and will be a cause of unusual rejoicing throughout the Masonic world.

All thanks are due to the able and prudent brethren in both the Grand Lodges of Canada and Quebee, who officially or otherwise have so earnestly and efficiently labored to bring about this most desirable end. May they long live to see the blessed fruits of their good work. May one and all put out of sight and out of mind all past differences;—and each strive to excel in that noblest of emulation of who can best work and best agree, so that our symbolic temple may be erected harmoniously and successfully and in the perfection of beauty, to the honor and glory of the Great Architect of the Universe.

VISIT TO ENGLAND.

Circumstances required me to visit England during the early part of the year. A favoring providence afforded me the unanticipated pleasure of reaching London, (that great metropolis of the world,) on the seventy-sixth anniversary of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys,-one of the oldest and most noteworthy of the great Masonic charities of England, and under the patronage of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, (than whom no better Sovereign ever graced a throne.) I accepted a most courteous invitation which was immediately extended to me, to attend the anniversary banquet in the evening, at which the Grand Master, the Most Honorable the Marquis of Ripon presided. Some four or five hundred representative brethren from London and all parts of England were present on the occasion. Nothing could exceed the fraternal heartiness of my reception as your representative, by his Lordship and many other leading officers and brethren of the Grand Lodge, for which, personally and in your behalf, I improve this opportunity to return most grateful thanks. A noteworthy feature of the occasion was the presence of several hundred ladies at a magnificent entertainment given in the grand hall after the banquet. From this our brethren may be reminded of their own remissness in not having the ladies share in some of our annual festivities.

It was indeed pleasant and instructive to learn from actual observation of the interior working of the great Masonic beneficiences of the mother land, which we may well strive to imitate, but cannot hope to equal. At this anniversary upwards of ten thousand pounds sterling were reported as having been contributed for the support of this institution during the current year, which large sum was, I learn, very considerably increased before closing the annual accounts.

When it is remembered that it is but one of the Masonic charities of England,--another most notable being the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,---it will be seen how extensive and substantial is the practical charity of our British brethren. Being, moreover, on this visit to England and also to Scotland, the land of my birth and early nurture (and where I received a like hearty welcome) the bearer of the "good news" of the actual adjustment of the long-standing differences with the Grand Lodge of Canada--the interest in which had become world-wide, and nowhere more deep or in Great Britain-it was most gratifying to receive letters of congratulafrom our Most Worshipful Brother, His Royal Highness the Prince of
