

Publishers' Notes.

We repeat these notes with some comments, as they are doing their intended work. Read and act at once.

Will all who are interested in extending the circulation of THE EVANGELIST and are willing to canvass for it drop us a card and we will send them the list of our old subscribers with those who have received sample copies, together with a liberal offer for the work they do.

The above note was in last issue, and a number have written us offering to canvass. There are others who could and should do the same. You say you would if you could, but you could if you would. We make it worth your while to do the work.

We hope some of our subscribers do not use their local papers as they do us. We take a charitable view of the matter and consider that they simply neglect to send in their subscriptions. We are afraid an uncharitable person would feel like calling them hard names. Please forward subscriptions and oblige.

This notice has awakened some of the delinquents. Now we hope before Christmas to have in all arrears. Let every subscriber do his part and we will not be disappointed; all that is required is an individual effort.

If you do not know how much you are in arrears ask the agent in your church, or if there is none there, drop us a card and we will inform you.

Could you not induce one or more of your friends to subscribe for the paper? Sometimes those whom you think are least likely to take the paper are ready to take it if they are only asked.

We have occasionally—not often—heard a person say the paper is dear. We beg leave to inform them that it is a very cheap paper. The Disciples in Canada never had a paper that could compare with THE EVANGELIST for cheapness. Of course the Christian Guardian, the Methodist paper, gives you four times as many pages for twice the price; but how many Disciples would choose it in preference to their own paper even if they could get it for the same price? It is a cheap paper, and it is your paper, and the more people you can go to take it the cheaper it can be made.

If you are not receiving your paper, or know of anyone who is not, or if you are changing your address, please drop us a card and inform us.

Orders are coming in for the Cyclopaedia from both new and old subscribers. Let all who want to see THE EVANGELIST a paper second to none in Canada work for it now.
