

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Catarrh is a mucopurulent discharge caused by the presence and development of the vegetable parasite ameba in the internal lining membrane of the nose. This parasite is only developed under favourable circumstances, and these are:—Morbid state of the blood, as the blighted corpuscle of aebler, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toronocoe, from the retention of the effeted matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; burrowing in the vocal cords, causing hoarseness; surping the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death. Many attempts have been made to discover a cure for this distressing disease by the use of various other ingenious devices but none of these treatments can do a particle of good until the parasites are either destroyed or removed from the mucous tissue. Some time since a well-known physician forty years standing, after much ceaseless searching, succeeded in discovering the necessary combination of ingredients which never fail in absolutely and permanently eradicating this horrible disease whether standing for one year or forty years. Those who may be suffering from the above disease, should, without delay, communicate with the business managers—Toronto Staff, Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King St. West, Toronto, Canada. Scientific and Useful.

A CURE FOR SORE THROAT.—Take a teaspoonful of black currant jam or jelly; put it in a tumbler, and fill up the tumbler with boiling water. Take this several times in the day, and drink whilst hot.

EARACHE.—Keep on hand for this a phial of camphor. Camphor one, laudanum one, and sweet oil two parts. Warm a teaspoonful, and pour it in the ear. Lay on the affected part a bag of bran well heated; cover up with something warm to the feet, and drop to sleep.

— Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted with any form of disease peculiar to the sex. Her Remedies are not only put up in liquid form but in Pills and Lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

It is stated that sackcloth, or canvas, can be made as irrevocable to moisture as leather, by steeping it in a decoction of one pound of oak bark with fourteen pounds of boiling water, this quantity being sufficient for eight yards of stuff. The cloth has to soak twenty-four hours, when it is taken out, passed through running water, and hung up to dry.

STUFFED EGGS.—Boil the eggs hard; cut them in two, carefully; remove the yellow and mix it with fried onions, salt, pepper and a little parsley and a little ham chopped fine. Fill the whites with this and fry, so as to brown.

TO PRESERVE SLICED BREAD FRESH.—If loaf bread has been sliced for dinner and it is not all eaten, take the slices remaining and place two together and have a clean cloth made very damp and wrap the bread carefully up, and put away and the next day it will be perfectly fresh.

THERE are many Cough Remedies, but only one Allen's Lung Balsam; try it. See advt.

THE weather should have much to do in deciding as to the bill of fare. Buckwheat cakes are just the thing for a cold morning, but not for lunch or tea on a warm rainy day. Healthfulness often demands a change in plan for the table to accord with the change in the thermometer.

THE VERDICT OF HALF THE WORLD.—The entire western hemisphere pronounce MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER the most delicious perfume for the boudoir, the ballroom, and the bath, that chemistry has yet succeeded in extracting from living flowers.

EXCELSIOR YEAST.—Pere and boil enough potatoes to make a pint when mashed. While yet very warm, mix thoroughly with it two table-spoonfuls sugar and a tea-spoonful salt. Then save the starter for next time. Scald one table-spoonful of flour with the potato water. When lukewarm, add the gem and the remainder of the potato and sugar. Set to rise over night. Then knead twice—that is, mould up; let rise; then make out into loaves; let rise, and bake.

METHOD OF PRESERVING FLOWERS, LEAVES AND OTHER PARTS OF PLANTS.—A patent issued to J. L. Wensel, of Berlin, covers the following process: The respective parts of the plants are coated with a solution of shellac or resin until they are perfectly dry. The moisture completely escapes after some time through the fine fissures of the coating. Finally, the coating is removed by the cautious use of alcohol, whereupon the organs will present their original sharp outline. It is desired to give them a better appearance, they may be coated with a thin layer of an adhesive varnish and dusted with a suitably coloured metallic bronze powder.

FOR burns and scalds there is nothing more soothing than the white of an egg, which may be poured over the wound. It is softer as a varnish for a burn than collodion, and being always at hand can be applied immediately. It is also more cooling than sweet oil and cotton, which was formerly supposed to be the surest application to allay the smarting pain. It is the contact with the air which gives the extreme discomfort experienced from the ordinary accident of this kind, and anything that excludes the air and prevents inflammation is the thing to be at once applied.

MRS. BARNHART, corner Pratt and Broadway, has been a sufferer for twelve years through rheumatism, and has tried every remedy she could hear of, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil; she says she cannot express the satisfaction she feels at having her pain entirely removed and her rheumatism cured. There are base imitations of this medicine for sale; see that you get Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.
