conditions

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is rapid. For this reason we put up a 50c. size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children.

In other conditions gain must be slow, sometimes almost imperceptible, health can't be built up in a day. For this Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment, food rather than medicine, food prepared for tired and weak digestions.

Rev. L. H. Jordan, of St. James' Square Church, Toronto, preached special services in the Macnab Street Presbyterian Church lately, on the occasion of the forty-second anniversary. In the morning there was children's service: "Ye are the children of light and not the children of darkness." In the evening he preached from: "Here you have no continuing city," during which he referred to the city of the living, the city of the dead and the city of the new Jerusalem. It was an exceedingly eloquent and interesting discourse, and was listened to by a large congregation. The special anniversary subscription amounted to $200.

Rev. Francis E. Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, delivered an address in Knox Church, Ottawa, on a recent evening. Speaking of his old home at Aylmer he said: "I am glad to get back to my native air, and tread again my native soil. And it is not mere sentiment which moves me when I come back to Canada and Ottawa, but it seems that I always renew my spiritual inspiration. Yesterday I went to my mother's grave and it seemed that a voice was speaking to me telling me to be more faithful in my Master's work. When I thought of my mother's characteristics, and her love and devotion to young people, it seemed to me that the principles of Christian Endeavor were laid years ago in the little town of Aylmer."

Collingwood is a large shipping port, and quite a number of fine steamers ply from thence to Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinac Island and intermediate places on the north shore. Our readers who desire a thoroughly refreshing trip during the "heated term" cannot do better than take this north shore excursion. The Majestic, a magnificently appointed steamer, built last season, and under command of Captain Campbell, so favourably known to the travelling public, affords the safety and comfort looked for on such a trip. This steamer, along with several others, is owned by the Great Northern Transit Co., of which Mr. Charles Cameron, Collingwood, is the efficient manager.

under their charge, the duty and privilege of family worship. By family worship is meant the assembling of the household daily at stated times for reading the Scriptures in due order and quantity, singing praise to the Lord where at all possible, and prayer either with or without the use of a printed form. In addition to such careful observance of family worship, we recommend the practice of Christian parents joining with their children in home study of the Sunday School lessons; thus securing the children's acquaintance with the lessons and with the Bible as a whole, whilst also giving parents an opportunity of guiding the minds of their children in matters of faith and practice as is required by their relation to their children in the sacrament of baptism. Finally the Presbytery affectionately enjoin upon the people under their spiritual oversight to "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," inasmuch as God has blessed the Sabbath day that it should be a means of blessing to them who observes it wholly as the Lord's day." Dr. Hamilton submitted a draft minute in remembrance of the late Dr. Reid, agent of the Church, which was adopted. Mr. Henderson tendered the resignation of his charge of Atwood and Monkton. It was agreed to take the usual procedure and cite these congregations to appear at the July meeting. Mr. McKibbin asked relief from duty for a time, on account of impaired health. The Presbytery expressed deep sympathy with him in the circumstances, and unanimously agreed to give him three month's leave of absence, beginning with the first of June, from both his pastoral duties and the duties of the clerkship of Presbytery—to supply his pulpits during this term—that Mr. Cameron supervise the matter of the supply, and that Mr. Henderson be clerk pro tem.—W. W. MCKIBBIN, Clerk.

OBITUARY.

PRINCIPAL MACINTYRE, M.A. LL.D.

It is with regret that we have to announce the death on Friday, of Dr. Macintyre, Principal of the Presbyterian Ladies' College in this city. He was seized about six weeks ago with nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork. He was born at Dewart, Kent, in 1841, and was educated for the teaching profession, being for a time a pupil under the late Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, then a grammar school teacher at Wardsville. He began his university course in 1864 and in 1866 accepted the position of adjunct professor of mathematics. He was successively head master of the High Schools of Bowmanville and Ingersoll, when he was called to fill the position of Principal of Brantford Presbyterian College, which he conducted successfully for eleven years. In 1889 he removed to Toronto, where he instituted the Presbyterian Ladies' College, of which he was Principal up to the time of his death. He was known throughout Canada as an enthusiastic Shakespearean student, while his lectures on that author and on historical subjects were enjoyed by thousands. The deceased Principal leaves a widow and two children, and Rev. Dr. D. C. Macintyre, pastor of the Beamsville Presbyterian congregation, is co-editor.
