

Canadian Life and Resources

THE CANADIAN NATIONAL MAGAZINE

Shows month by month a picture of the life of the Canadian people as well as the boundless resources of our country.

We are willing to send you a 3 months sub- 10 Cents
scription for -

We make this special offer for a limited time, because we are sanguine that when once this beautiful magazine has been read by you such an interest will be aroused that you will become a regular subscriber. If at the end of three months you do not wish to continue, just say so by sending us a postal asking us to discontinue. If you do like it and want to receive it every month send 75c for the remaining nine months of the year.

N.B.—The covers alone are worth a dollar. During the past five months a large half-tone reproduction of one of the famous paintings by Paul Wickson representing striking scenes in Western life, has been given on the cover. There are still four pictures in this series which will appear during the next few months. We will send the back numbers of 1906 for ten cents per copy.

Resources Publishing Co., Ltd.
Board of Trade Building, MONTREAL

SOME SPECIAL FEATURES.

The Story of the Month—A short and pithy record on the first page of the principal events of the past month.

An illustrated article showing one of the many varied resources of the Dominion.

Short articles About People and About Places of general interest to Canadians and those interested in Canada.

The Trend of the Market—A diagram page giving the fluctuations of the stocks and shares of the leading Canadian companies month by month.

Financial Review—This powerful feature wherein the balance sheets of the great Canadian companies have been impartially discussed is carried on by the able writer who has made this feature of CANADIAN LIFE AND RESOURCES widely read in commercial and financial circles.

The Books of the Month—Short, popular reviews of the leading Canadian publications, with illustrations.

A series of brief, brightly written articles upon the history of the country, a page headed Beautiful Canada, in which the beautiful (1) homes, (2) public buildings, (3) parks, (4) statues etc., are shown, thus giving the world an idea of the wealth, comfort and artistic ability of Canada.

A page devoted to Travel, Sports and Games.

A series of Short Stories by leading Canadian writers.

Our Point of View in which the editor expresses these independent observations on current Canadian events which are one of the most prominent features in this national magazine.

CUT OUT AND MAIL
Name
Address

I enclose 10c in acceptance of your offer for a Three Months subscription, after which time I will either send you 75c for the remaining nine months or write you to stop the magazine. Stamps accepted.