Mercantile Summary.

The Rathbun Co. has taken an interest in the Marl mine at Maribank, and will operate it extensively.A BUSINESS man of Portland, Me., lost a $20 gold piece while on his way to his office, and on his way home found the coin on the pavement where it had lain unnoticed all day.HON. A. G. B. BANNATYNE, many years a resident of Manitoba, long a merchant in Winnipeg, and the first president of the Board of Trade in that city, died at St. Paul, on Saturday, in his sixtieth year.It is said that thirty million feet of logs are hung up in the drives at Grand Falls in N.B.
This is an unusual and unfortunate condition of things, but the Telegraph thinks it may yet be remedied by heavy rains, if they come soon enough.The Rapid M'fg. Co., capital $150,000, whose promoters are J. Crothers of Bedford, Geo. L.
Hillman, Toronto, H. L. Flint and Algernon Granville, of Chicago, and Albert J. Brown of Montreal, are about to make type-writing machines, sewing machines, and possibly other articles of domestic use.DEATH continues to be busy in the ranks of the older generation of successful Montreal merchants. Following close on the lamented decease of the Hon. Thomas Ryan last week, comes the announcement of the death of Mr.
P. M. Galarneau, for half a century a prominent figure in the wholesale dry goods trade, and long a director of La Banque du Peuple. On Saturday last died also Mr. James McDougall, one of the pioneers in the milling business of Montreal, in which he had acquired a handsome competence, and one of that sturdy class of Scotchmen who have helped so largely in the development of Canada and her resources.
