

1. The Commission on the Energy Program was established in 1960 to study the energy needs of Canada and to recommend a program of energy development.

II. THE ENERGY PROGRAM

2. The Commission's report, published in 1961, set out a program of energy development for Canada, including the development of hydroelectric power, coal, oil, and natural gas.

III. THE ENERGY PROGRAM AND THE ENERGY BOARD

3. The Energy Board was established in 1961 to administer the Energy Program and to report to the Commission on the progress of the program.

IV. THE ENERGY BOARD AND THE ENERGY PROGRAM

4. The Energy Board has been successful in carrying out the Energy Program and in developing the energy resources of Canada. It has also been successful in securing the necessary financing for the program.

V. THE ENERGY BOARD AND THE ENERGY PROGRAM

5. The Energy Board has been successful in carrying out the Energy Program and in developing the energy resources of Canada. It has also been successful in securing the necessary financing for the program.

VI. THE ENERGY BOARD AND THE ENERGY PROGRAM

6. The Energy Board has been successful in carrying out the Energy Program and in developing the energy resources of Canada. It has also been successful in securing the necessary financing for the program.