

on its success, the Commission will now enlarge the coverage of the project and will send 12 EU graduates to Canada every six months during the next two years.