

capitalists. But no. He is one of the responsible editors of this Alarm Clock which has published such scurrilous things.

If you come right out and face them with this sort of thing and then the threat of expulsion and discipline; take a strong stand now at the beginning of term, it will do more to stop it than by trying to reason with them.

No sanction will be given for the publication of any paper other than those published under the control of the Students' Council, and ~~anyone~~ ^{anyone} who ~~undertakes~~ ^{undertakes} to circulate/within a paper the university ~~and~~ and to indicate in that paper any connection whatever with the University or university students must bear the foregoing principles in mind and realize that any breach of them ~~will~~ ^{may} involve not only ~~the~~ ^{prohibition of} the paper ~~in~~ ^{on} the University but University discipline for those responsible., and not only discipline, but suspension or expulsion.