Dear Sir Arthur,

I rec'd a letter, last week, from Mrs Debs of New York in reference to the interment of the remains of her late husband, W. E. Debs, in the University grounds.
You suggested that you would take the matter up again with Dean Martin.

Will you be good enough to advise me of your decision so that I may be able to communicate with Mrs Debs at an early date?

The Crematorium has requested her to provide final disposition of the remains

Yours faithfully
Wm Reilly
