

- Note (1) These two classes while taking the same lecture course in (6) have the practical application planned differently since the Junior Administrators have usually a higher academic standing being entered for a professional course.
- (2) B.H.S. and Institution Administration are both professional courses, the one year Homemaker a non-professional course, the entrance requirement to the latter being grade VII standing.