

Governor Cornwallis did not apply to him, before he sent Complaints to his Court; I sent immediately your Memorial to M. Rouille, desiring him to enquire with all Speed, how Affairs were transacted in Canada, and to let me know them, that I may be able to answer your Excellency in a more positive Manner.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Signed, PUYZIEULX.

P. S. Perhaps Governor Cornwallis may have formed Settlements on some Lands contended for, or on the King's Territories.

A LETTER sent by M. Rouille to M. de la Jonquiere, a Copy of which was sent on the 15th of July, 1750, to my Lord Albemarle.

Verfailles, July the 11th, 1750.

S I R,

I Send you the Copy of a Memorial directed to the Marquis de Puyzieulx, from the Ambassador of Great-Britain; wherein you will see the Complaints made by the British Court, concerning certain Transactions on the Frontiers of Canada and Nova-Scotia: If any of the French Inhabitants in those Parts, be guilty of the Outrages there complained of, they would deserve Punishment, and the King would make an Example of them. His Majesty therefore desires you would send me, by the first Opportunity, a faithful and true Account of the Facts, that I may acquaint him with the Particulars thereof.

The King also commands me to put you in Mind of the several Orders which his Majesty has already given you, concerning the Manner in which you are to conduct yourself towards the English, especially in every Thing that regards the Limits of the respective Colonies, till they are regulated; in supporting his just Rights against every Attempt which might tend to invade them: You are also to attempt nothing against the Rights of the English, but to treat them in such a respectful Manner, as may be consistent with the Honour of the Nation, and the Preservation of its Possessions; you are also to take Care that those Officers, who shall be sent by you, from Time to Time, to such Block-Houses as are adjacent to the English Colonies, behave likewise in the same Manner: In a Word, prevent every Thing which might occasion any just Cause of Complaint against you. His Britannic Majesty, as I have already acquainted you, has prescribed to the Governors of his Colonies, the like Conduct respecting you. There is Reason to hope that all Things
