

CHAPTER VIII.

Visit of a deputation of strange Indians looking for a missionary—Able to read the good book—Taught by our Christian hunters—Obtained Bibles—Then taught their own people—Longing for instruction—Story of the Ethiopian eunuch here repeated—Visit them—Hungry for the truth.....Page 104

CHAPTER IX.

Missionary encouragements—Beautiful incidents of the Gospel's power—Sick Indian brought twenty-five miles to see the missionary—Convicted Indian's prayer, "Here, Lord, I can do no more; please take poor Indian too"—Story of Joe—The hot Sunday—Simple service—Joe's doubts—Accepts Christ—The small-pox—Sorrows and bereavements in the missionary's home—None to help or sympathize with them—Providential deliverance from savage Blackfoot Indians—Joe dying of small-pox—His message—His death..... 114

CHAPTER X.

President Cleveland wanted more dog stories—Mrs. Cleveland's kind words for the missionary's wife—My dogs—Essential for traveling in the North-land—Esquimaux—A trial of patience—Biting a dog's ear—A stubborn dog's end—The meat-pot or soap-kettle—The ecclesiastic's expedient to get on—The method of breaking in young dogs—Jack's help—Cunning old Caesar—My own train—Voyageur the matchless leader—How I unfortunately broke his heart—Jack the noblest of them all..... 125

CHAPTER XI.

More Indian deputations—Caught in a blizzard storm on Lake Winnipeg—Alone and bewildered in the gale—Expedient to keep from being lost—Welcome war-whoop—Faithful Indians—A noisy reception—Ceremonious council—Religious services—Treaty discussions—The inside view of paganism—Woman's sad and humiliating condition—My breach of etiquette in kindly preaching to them—Contrast between woman's condition in pagan and Christian villages—Invalid mother carried to church..... 138

CHAPTER XII.

Out in the bitter cold—The missionary's camp-fire story of his bitterest experience from the extreme cold—Trying to mend the broken harness