

GEORGE SMITH AND PAN ZARETA SHOW THEIR WORTH AT HAMILTON

Spring Brewery Stakes to Unbeaten McBride Two-Year-Old—Pan Zareta Picked Up Big Weight and Romped Home—The Results.

Edward McBride's unbeaten two-year-old George Smith captured the Spring Brewery Stakes, the feature event of the third day's racing at the Hamilton Jockey Club. George Smith carried weight 123 pounds, and after being badly outrun by his field to the stretch turn, where he was ridden by the son of Out of Reach—Consuelo II, passed Regina, Hume and Peep right to win going strong by a length. The New York filly Regina raced in front all well into the stretch, and was only beaten a head by King Neptune for the place. King Neptune was an added starter, and an outsider in the betting.

Harry Newman's flying Texas mare, Pan Zareta, scored her second victory of the season, when she romped home an easy winner, three lengths ahead of H. G. Bedwell's Sir Edgar. Pan Zareta carried 118 pounds and raced head and head with the three-year-old Sir Edgar for the first three-quarters of the race. Pan Zareta showed a flash in her two-year-old form and held the leading position, and she was ridden by the place. The Hamilton mare won well up most of the way.

The Davies stable scored their first victory of the meeting when Moving Picture won the second race from the other Toronto horse, Martin. Harry Giddings' Coronation Stakes winner, Armine, was an odds-on favorite in the opening race, but he was ridden by the place.
