
FUNERAL BENEFITS.

SEC. 9. Upon the death of a member in good standing, an order shall be drawn upon the Treasurer for the sum of fifty dollars ($50), payable to his personal representatives, the order to be signed by the Chief and attested by the Financial Secretary.

SECURITY.

SEC. 10. No member shall make known out of this Camp any of the proceedings, decisions, or business of any kind transacted within the same, to any person not a member of the Camp, and no member shall in open Camp make use of any profane, irreverent or improper expressions, or introduce any conversation tending to cause a difference of opinion on political or religious subjects, on a penalty of being censured or otherwise punished as the Camp may determine.

SICK BENEFITS.

SEC. 11. Every member who has been in connection with the Camp for the space of six months, and is not more than three months in arrears, if taken sick, and is unable to attend to his ordinary business in consequence of such sickness, shall receive a sick benefit of one dollar ($1) per week for the space of 13 weeks, should the sickness continue so long. Such sickness must be verified by a physician and the chairman of the Sick Committee, when the Chief shall cause an order to be drawn, signed by himself and the Financial Secretary, on the Treas-
