

Horse Show Awards Lacrosse Signing Players Woodbine Horses Coming

Note and Comment

They were talking at the track yesterday morning, of course, discussing the chances of the various candidates for the plate. The judge's action pointing to a long shot, looked like pretty fair reasoning, tho at least one of the regulars, who plays the favorites, and, assisted by a hunch, proclaimed loudly for Waterloo. Mr. Seagram had missed the past three years, just as he did '09 and '10. This year he will come back again, having a nice quartet, with Rustling, the three-year-old, by Mrs. Seagram, from Frodo, imported from England in 1909, as the handstand. This, in an open race, Rustling or one of his stable-mates should earn the honors the Duke of Connaught's first year at the Woodbine.

Hereby and Ambrise looked to have it between them when the snow was on the ground, but you can get 3 to 1 against either betting today, with your friends. Still, John Nixon says one of the Dymond horses will win the guinea, adding that Seagram's are the only ones he fears about everything in the Handicap class. John looks for meagre opposition from Hamilton, Thos. and Broderick's, and a new trainer, and apologizing to the judge, the King's Plate is not to be an open race, but will resolve itself into a contest between Barrie and Waterloo, the finish being Herby's, Rustling's, and the probability is that when the stand goes up the numbers will be reversed.

Sporting Editor World: I am glad to see that the Olympic has booked a good man out for this month. The Olympic has delivered the goods, and it was not Tommy's fault that the authorities stepped in. Wells and Lang should make a good go. I am pleased that they are starting up again and hope the police are the same. Yours truly, For Clean Sport.

They were trying to figure it out on Tommy Day, when the poker train came back with the puzzle. If Rocky can Steele, why shouldn't Dalton Lush?

A Chicago restaurant owner has nailed a large china plate on the centre-field fence at the Cubs' park. The owner of the plate is the announcement that if Frank Schulte can hit it with a batted ball he will be given a restaurant worth $1000. That's why Schulte has been telling the other fellows how to make him run. They may hit the plate and still miss the restaurant.

"Do you know why the Cincinnati Reds are winning?" asked a close student of baseball the other day. "I answer it myself. Hank O'Day, a National League umpire, twenty years, knows more about the pitchers of rival teams than the other managers. He is also aware of the weak points of all the batters, and he has imparted this valuable information to the Reds. O'Day, always a dictator when on the bench, is an easy task to enforce discipline. He isn't a bully, but he rules with an iron hand, and has proved to his men that he knows more about inside baseball than any other man. Therefore, the Cincinnati manager, aware of the trials and tribulations of umpires, is against kicking him out of the park. He can secure better breaks if his men play clean ball."

ELMHURST WINS 2 BLUE RIBBONS

Hon. C. Sifton Lands First and Thirds on Opening Night—Splendid Work by Judges.

Difficult work splendidly performed was what the judges did in making the awards in the two harness classes on opening night at the horse show. Class 1, novices, 14.3 and under, was won by A. Yeager's five-year-old b.g. Wonder, from Simcoe. He had the conformation and looked the part. Second went to the chestnut, Geo. Ade, from Jarvis, Ont., euphonically named for his fair owner, Mrs. E. B. Eald, who handled the ribbons. Pat Maher's The Earl was third. He also drove himself.

Class 2, over 14.3, went to Tommy Crow's Nobleman, b.g., 18 hands, driven by Billy Murray, a beautiful bold gelding horse with lots of style, good knee and back action. A Yeager was a close second with Peter Grim, and Miss Thornhill's Captain third.

Hon. Clifford Sifton's Elmhurst was a double winner, landing the big open jumping class, and also the thorough hunters. H. S. Wilson's Mayfair, from Oakville, was second in the jumpers, and Lieut. Sifton's Dorchester third.
