61 Victoria-Street, Toronto, 86 McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch from their branch office at Chicago:
There was a better feeling in the wheat market at the opening, due to higher prices on New York Stock Exchange and cables also had some effect. There was a fair demand, opening with some increase in outside business; later on a declining stock market and higher rates for money, 6 per cent. on call. There was a reaction of %c from the best price of the day. The strength near the close was on large cash business, which amounted to 350,000 bushels No. 2 spring wheat for export and 50 loads at seaboard, principally via Boston.
