Political Propaganda Will Be Carried To All Sections of the Province by Ablest Speakers in Legislature — More Than Fifty Meetings Arranged For Summer Months-Secretary J. J. Morrison Scheduled To Address Largest Number of Gatherings.

Toronto, June 3.—The United Farmers of Ontario have planned one of the greatest political educational campaigns ever staged in Ontario for the coming year. A partial list of the meetings arranged for the summer months already has passed the fifty mark, while an equal or greater number is scheduled in the U. F. O. co-operative stock selling drive.

J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U. F. O., sated today that the organization is better equipped than ever before to carry on its educational propaganda, as a great number of speakers have been recruited for the various meetings.

Premier Drury, Hon. Manning Doherty, Hon. F. C. Biggs, R. W. E. Burnaby, president of the U. F. O. Co-Operative Company; J. J. Morrison, Mrs. Brodle, J. H. Purvis and Mrs. Laws, are the ones upon whom the heaviest burdens will fall. Mr. Mordison heads the list so far compiled. "It is not our intention to throw the full load of the work upon the members of the Legislature," said Mr. Morrison. "We did not do that during the last election, Mr. F. C. Sandy of Victoria, being about the only one who was asked to work in the general cause."

PUBLIC SCHOOL IS FORCED TO USE CORRIDOR AS CLASSROOM

Another Temple of Learning Teaches A B C's in Cloakroom -Problem For Board of Education.

Evidence of the crowded condition of the public schools is illustrated by the fact that a corridor at Wortley Road School has been fitted up as a classroom; cloakrooms are being used at Ealing and Colborne Street schools, and Victoria School is using rooms over the South London public library for overflow classes. Egerton Street School is still being conducted in an old residence secured as temporary premises. Victoria School is using rooms over the South London public library for over-flow classes. ## SCHOOL PICNIC FRIDAY

Arrangements Completed For Annual Event That Brings Joy to the Hearts of London Children.

All arrangements, except as to the very desirable guarantee of fine weather, have been completed for the big public school picnic on Friday afternoon. The London Street Railway has agreed to carry all school children to and from Springbank for a 10-cent fare with coupon, good for ride on city cars to any part of the city when returning. All precautions have been undertaken to prevent accidents, and nurses and first aid experts will be in attendance in case of minor hurts and bruises or emergencies of any kind.

Every teacher will be required to accompany his or her class, and remain.

cere assurance given the society at its banquet at the Chateau Laurier last evening by His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire in the course of a comprehensive address

President J. B. Reynolds of Manitoba Agricultural College, in his address on "A Vision for Canadian Agriculture," urged the necessity of organization—organization for political purpose of necessity—in order that governments would be compelled to give attention to the needs of farmers. A farmer was too much of an individualist to subordinate his soul to shekels. His life was a dream of service. The farmer was the only creator of wealth, and one with the Creator in providing food for the universe, President Reynolds said.

URGES CO-OPERATION. Calgary, June 3.—Farmers and manufacturers should make an effort to get together and settle their differences if possible. Mayor Hardle and President Marnoch of the Lethbridge Board of marnoch of the Lethbridge Board of Trade, told the visiting manufacturers there last evening.

Co-operation was the true basis of prosperity, said Mr. Hardie. President Marnoch said there was much bitterness among the farmers against the manufacturers, on account of the protective tariff wall, but there should be an effort at co-operation. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association party were given a royal welcome by the Lethbridge citizens. President Howard said it was the best reception they had ever received, and took occasion at the big banquet tendered them to repeat the assertion that the manufacturers' knew no east or west.

THE BUSY BUDGETEERS

Five finance ministers—five, count 'em, five—Drayton, Foster, White, Fielding and Maclean—looked on while a budget, brave but belated, made its way through the House.

Not once did Sir Henry refer to it as "my budget," as certain other finance ministers have been in the habit of doing. Nor did he say "our budget," which he might have done as reflecting the great wisdom of the cabinet, or back of that the common sense of the people. Sir Henry was a modest spokesman.

The outstanding fact is that the budget ceases to borrow and begins to tax. The light has come late to Union Government, but it has come at last. The light had a hard job penetrating and would no doubt still be excluded if public opinion had not used an axe and made a cleavage. It is an open secret that six months ago the Government was sweet on another domestic loan, but the clamor against it was so great that they changed the minds and did as much of the right of compromisers to do. The policy of borrowing from Peter to pay Paul has received, let us hope, a final check.
