MAYOR SAILS FOR HOME

City, Auditor Stirling Will Meet Returning Civic Financiers In New York.

Mayor Oliver and City Treasurer Coady left for home at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, taking passage on the Mauretania at Liverpool, according to a cable received by Mrs. Oliver.
They are expected to arrive in New York on Thursday or Friday of this week. Business will occupy two or three days there, so that they will not arrive in Toronto until about Wednesday of next week.

Mrs. Oliver, members of the family, and City Auditor Walter Sterling will go to New York to meet them. Mr.
Sterling's visit is in connection with the business to be transacted, including the forwarding by steamer of another allotment of civic bonds. This far, not a word of private advice has been received as to the flotation of the bonds.

The city has about $4,000,000 in bonds to dispose of in addition to the $1-$75,000 unofficiated announced. Mr.
Sterling says the bonds will be disposed of in a number of allotments, and that the flotation may extend over a period of two or three years.

INSPIRED MISSIONARY
OVERFLOWS TWO HALLS

Many Thousands Fail to Get Into

Massey Hall and Cooke's

Church.

Gipsy Smith had his largest audience in Toronto so far yesterday. The evening gathering was a magnificent testimony to the work he has been doing. Before six the crowds began to gather. By 6:30 a queue three or four deep had formed on each side of the Massey Hall doors. At 6:45 these queues reached along Shuter-street east and west and down both Victoria and Yonge-streets to Queen. At six minutes to 7 the doors were opened and in ten minutes the hall was filled.

It had not been intended to open the doors till 7:15, but long before this time was not a seat left in the preschers' were put on the platform. The choir seats were crowded with visitors.
Children were set in chairs for their elders. The top gallery especially was crowded, many standing through, and all the walls were lined.

Things were turned away, and an overflow movement directed to Cooke's Church filled that edifice.

The meeting in Massey Hall, while betraying to some extent the atmosphere of curiosity, was undoubtedly earnest. Scores of persons at the close visited the enquiry room in the basement and there were more who profes-ed to have found their Saviour than at any of the previous meetings.

TWO IN AFTERNOON

In the afternoon the two meetings were about the same in point of attendance, the hall being filled with women at 2:30 except a part of the top gallery, and an hour later with men.

The men's meeting was the more earnest of the two, although the women got the better sermon.

Gipsy Smith enters on his last week-to-day, and the services will be continued at 2 and 7 o'clock Friday.

Saturday there will be no services.

Next Monday evening Gipsy Smith will deliver his great autobiographical lecture, "Gipsy Smith on Sale to-day at 25 cents each. The proceeds of this lecture are devoted to the open air wagon mission among the Chinese of England, of whom there are 20,000. As Gipsy Smith receives no money from Toronto, his expenses being defrayed by the National Council of the Church of England, this is a chance to help Gipsy Smith to help his kinfolk of the ten's.

One of the Australian press delegates from New South Wales was present last night.

"I got here by going without my dinner," he remarked, "but I wouldn't have missed this for anything."

The Paralytic at the Pool.

Rev. W. H. Vance of the Church of the Ascension made a hit at the women's meeting by his brief but brimful address. He was speaking of the man who lay at the pool of Bethesda.

He had been used to look upon him as an example of 38 years of patience, perseverance and confidence in Christ and his power to overcome the weakness of the paralytic to be in his place. "Why," he said, "is it not believed that the weakness was in the man's heart and will. The important part about Jesus' text was the question, 'Will thou?' 'Are you resolved?
Are you determined? Have you made up your mind?'

The man had settled down into a chronic state of invalidism.

"I am the celebrated invalid of this place. Every one knows me. I have been here 38 years. This was his attitude. Jesus did not sympathize with him or soothe him. 'Will thou?' was all his question."

"Are there any counterparts of that man here this afternoon? No one comes to hear Mr. Smith unless he or she wishes to hear more of the precious gospel of Jesus Christ which you have heard and I have heard him preach. Your weakness is not your head. The blood of Christ is not like that intermittent stream. You do not need to wait. Come a definite confession, honest resolution. The power is here. The healing quality is here.
All the grace of God is here this afternoon. All the influences necessary to heat these 3000 women are here. We want to realize that the grace of Jesus Christ is not a substitute for what we must do for ourselves. An ounce of resolution is worth a ton of inclination to be relieved from sins and temptation."

AFRICAN GOLD FOR CANADA

Has Been Coming By Way of Britain, Says C. R. Hosmer.

MONTREAL, May 16.—(Special.)— According to Charles R. Hosmer, director of the C.P.R. and the Bank of Montreal, who returned to-day from England, several things have contributed of late toward directing British capital towards Canada.

First—No less than $125,000,000 has been sent to England from South Africa since January, from mines long since unproductive, yet of late revived, and a good deal of this money has been sent here for Canadian investment, and a great deal more will be sure to follow.

But, he says, the policy of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in purchasing Dominion securities to the amount of $5,000,000, for the account of the Canadian Pacific Railway, gave a boost to the credit of the Dominion, and to her municipal institutions as well.

He says that people were also highly pleased to see the Sovereign and Ontario Bonds were so smoothly liquidated.

YOUNG LONDONER KILLED

Body Found on the Railway Track at Daylight.

LONDON, May 16.—(Special.)— Percy M. Stinson, aged 23, of this city, was instantly killed on the G. T. R. tracks one mile east of Dorchester this morning. The body was found at daylight, but identification was not established until late in the day by his father, McLean Stinson.

It is supposed that he met his death by stepping aside from one track and directly into the path of another train.
An inquest will be held.

DELAWARE'S BIG STRAWBERRY CROP.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 16.—(Press.)—The strawberry crop in this State is the greatest crop of strawberries ever grown in Delaware. It was estimated that 10,000,000 quarts of berries are now on the vines in this State.

Harper, Custom Broker, McKinnon Building, Toronto.

Men's Meeting.

The men's meeting was eloquently addressed by Rev. W. A. Cameron, Bloor-street Baptist Church. From the text, Isaiah ix, 6. In his address following Gipsy Smith for the first time in this mission spoke about hell. A number of the older seculists appeared to derive much satisfaction from the reference.

Gipsy Smith had been speaking of the Saturday night debauch that some indulged in.

"The wonder of it is you are not in hell," he remarked. "Some people ask me do I believe in hell? The Bible does. If it talked about it once I would believe it, but it talks about it fifty times. The parable of the rich man and Lazarus means two things.
Firstly that there is a hell, and secondly that the rich man was in it and knew he was in it."

"The man who undertakes to put a false bottom in the bottomless pit has a big job on hand, and I don't propose to work for him."

Visits Dr. Smith.

He also spoke of his visit to the Grange on Saturday.

"I had an intensely interesting visit with the grand old man of your city, Dr. Goldwin Smith, yesterday. I told him something of what I was saying about the last men, and the lost men and the least men. He looked at me with smile I shall never forget and said: 'Of course medicine is for the sick.'"

"Am I dreaming, or is this a fact?" he concluded his address in impassioned accents. "Is this thing, poetry or is it true? Has Jesus Christ come to save anybody here?"

Cries of "Yes, yes," came from all over the house.

"What He has done for some He can do for everybody."

The evening subject was the story of Zacchaeus, the publican, who climbed the tree to see Jesus. The address was a very earnest one, and a large number of enquirers went to the seekers' room than at any previous meeting.
