Householder Has to Pay. The sub-committee to revise the water rates had a preliminary session this evening. City Engineer Macallum said the consumption of water among households was about thirty gallons a day per capita, but the average consumption of the city was 12 gallons, because of the large amount used by the manufacturers hotels, etc., and ommittee to revise the waby the manufacturers, hotels, etc.. and the householder to pay the piper.

The committee will endeavor to strike a schedule that will remedy this state of aflairs. The police continued, their crusade against tramps this evening making five arrests. Wm. Hildreth, 141 South Walnut-street; Jno. Encher, Toronto; Alex. Myers, 515 Charlton-avenue; Wm. Carrie, and Wm. Price, Toronto. The police say that they are going to clear the city of tramps. In the past Hamilton has been a mecca for them.

Equalizing Water Rates. The fire and water committee is try-ing to readjust water rates. City En-glacer. Macallum figures that while some manufacturers get off at the rate being made, the street railway receipts for the past quarter showed an increase of $4,080, the figures being: 1908, $78.78. 1900 $25.452

WESTERN CROPS GREAT

Of Nearly 300 Correspondents Reporting Conditions, 73 Per Cent. Say No Harm Done

The Winnipeg Telegram wired to early 300 correspondents in the three nearly 300 correspondents in prairie provinces as follows: "Please make careful enquiry and wire us crop conditions in your district, mentioning what damage, if any, by rain, hall, frost or any other cause." Broadly speaking the damage reported amounts to very little. Of 271 places heard from, 197, or 78 per cent. of the whole number, confidently state that there has been no damage at all. Seventy-four report some damage, but in 61 of these cases it is very slight, and in only 13 is it at all serious. Even in these 13 instances the loss has been generally confined to a few farms which were injured by hall without affecting any large part of the district. The reports as to the yield are ex-tremely cheering. A hundred and thir-teen places say the crop will be over ultimately be found to run from 35 to declined to make any statement to the police about the case.
