AT THE THEATRES

"A Gentleman From Mississippi"

Monday evening the stage of the Princess Theatre will be given up to "A Gentleman From Mississippi," a comedy written by Harrison Rhodes and Thomas A. Wise, and presented by William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grisham. The story is woven with a number of ludicrous adventures of a newly-elected southern senator in Washington, three or four little love romances, and considerable intrigues and political graft, making one of the most interesting plots imaginable. A simple cotton planter from Mississippi has been elected by the people of the native state to represent them in the senate, and the play opens at the time of his arrival in Washington. Here he is met by a newspaper writer, Bud Haines, who impresses him so favorably that he makes the reporter his secretary. Bud is well versed in all the tricks of life in the national capital and saves the new senator from many pitfalls. A shady deal is engineered by some politicians and the senator is compromised by his son and daughter being induced to invest in it. He finds a way, however, to defeat the schemers and save both his money and his honor.

"One of the Family." Charles Richmond will be seen here in an ideal southern play, by C. L. Dancy, who, having been a resident of the south, has the advantage in setting out the stage of familiar acquaintance with the scenes, types of characters, the coloring and the spirit he depicts in "One of the Family." The play that comes to the Royal Alexandra Theatre next Monday.

Charles Richmond portrays the part of James Marshall, the unknown, who is a public charge, when a kind old planter, Daniel Washington, takes him from his almshouse and gives him a home. In the course of time he becomes a young man, proud and sensitive. He determines to leave the world, and disappears from Danville. He works his way north and after many hardships and adventures becomes general manager for a teacher come to him. He returns to his former home with the object of discovering, if possible, the man who deserted his mother. Arriving in Danville he begins a quiet investigation, and discovers the name of his father. The dramatic incident of in-

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby," the latest addition to the class of musical shows, is the attraction at the Grand next week. The company is a large one, composed of 60-12 people, the "half," of course, being the baby. The credit for the book goes to Aaron Hoffman and Paul West, and the dialog, extra characters and situations they have applied to help make "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" into a play constitute a combination which has proven satisfactory to theatregoers where the play has been seen. There are 16 musical numbers, including the finale of the second act, all of which will obtainable popularly, but the ones to attain distinction are "The Newlyweds," "Love Time," "Switzer Bride," and "Can't You See I Love You?" "Boogie Woogie" is given by Mr. Newby, assisted by a party of young girls, who are a most entertaining feature of the show. The scenic arrangements of both acts are entirely adequate, and the costuming of the company is worthy of special mention. The songs of Mrs. Newby and the eight Newlyweds are of the stunning variety.

New Majestic Music Hall. In keeping with the policy of Mr. William Morris, the New York theatre magnate, who keeps his theatres in operation the year round, a season of summer vaudeville will be inaugurated on Monday afternoon next at the New Majestic Music Hall. Popular prices will prevail and the program will comprise eight high-class vaudeville acts and three reels of the latest and most popular pictures, which will be brought direct from New York and Chicago. As several of his European vaudeville stars have decided to remain in America this summer instead of returning to London to play the music halls, Mr. Morris promises that all the choicest of the vaudeville amusement free will be shelled down for the benefit of the patrons of the Majestic. A modern cooling plant will be installed in the theatre, and the course of a few weeks and every comfort will be afforded the patrons of summer vaudeville at this playhouse.

At Shea's. The headline act next week at Shea's Theatre will be that old-time favorite dancer, Dan Burke, assisted by his "Wonder Girls," including Miss Mollie Moller, in a scenic novelty, "At Lake Winnepesaukee." Special music and scenery are used in this miniature production. Maud and Gladys Finney, "The Mermaids," will be another feature. These young English girls are beautiful, and their swimming and feats shown under water in a mammoth glass tank, make their act one of the biggest novelties. The Farrel-Taylor Company have not been seen by Sheagora in several seasons, and their merry musical act, "That Minstrel Man," is sure of a warm welcome. The act is truly new in every line and situation, and in the hands of these clever people there is a laugh every minute. Raymond and Caverly, "The Wizards of Joy," have not been here in some time, and they promise to put more tangles than ever in their German conversation. These men are the best comedians of their class. The three Du Ball Brothers were seen at Shea's last season and were unknown to many. Their singing and novelty wooden shoe dancing was an immense hit, and they are well remembered and will be given a warm reception. Harry Ford is a newcomer and he is called the "Rapid Fire Song Writer." He is more than this. He can make a song out of nothing, and to any old tune sing faster than he can think. Mr. Green has met with great success wherever he has appeared this season, and Sheagora are sure to like him. The bill closes with new pictures on the kinograph.

Wolfgang Fight Pictures. The extra attraction at the Star next week is the Nelson-Wolfgang fight pictures. These give an exact reproduction of one of the most spectacular ring battles ever known, and should be greatly appreciated by all lovers of sport. "The Jolly Girls" present one of the most laughable first parts ever given in any burlesque show in "The Two Buzards." The performance will conclude with the most entertaining act, entitled "A Young Turk," which is said to contain numerous laughable incidents and in which will be given a big Turkish number by the entire chorus, which will set the people laughing.

"The Merry Whirl." One of the interesting features of the musical comedy, "The Merry Whirl," which will be seen at the Gaiety next Monday, for one week, will be the Battalions of girls. Girls decked out in stunning gowns, gorgeous frocks and cunningly devised frills and laces. Dainty hats, beautiful jewels and delicate footwork. A chorus full of pretty girls, and the costumes, full of pretty girls. The dialogue of this musical play is exceptionally witty, the lyrics tellingly set to music and the scenic environment exceeds its nearest competitor. Altogether, "The Merry Whirl" will be found the most humorous, tuneful and quite the nicest entertainment that has played this theatre during the present season.

Mr. Joffe in Recital. R. Norman Joffe's numerous friends in Toronto will be pleased to learn that he will give a recital in the hall of the Conservatory Music College-street, on Saturday evening, April 20. During the past two years, Mr. Joffe has been meeting with great success in New York, and has been assisting Madam Langendorf, the contralto, who has created such a sensation during the past winter. There is a decided improvement in Mr. Joffe's singing since his last appearance here. Mr. Joffe's program will include classical and popular songs.

Shackleton Will Lecture. The attempt thru the law courts to deprive Lieut. Sir Ernest T. Shackleton, the Antarctic explorer, from giving his lecture in Massey Hall on April 27, will not be sufficient to interfere in any way with the lecture, according to advice received from the manager of the tour.

Creator's Band. Creator and his band, the usual combination of brass and wood-wind, about the size of the band, will give an appearance in Toronto since 1905, on Monday evening next. Most of the arrangements of music that they play, ranging from the Tannhauser march to a Carmen Phantasia, are given over to strong contrasts and the fortissimos come out like gunshots. Creator's band, which has been in existence for many years, and has thrown his whole soul into his work.

Billous Headache

COMES FROM LIVER DERANGEMENTS WHICH ARE THOROUGHLY OVERCOME BY DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Headache is said to be the most useful pain in the world. It is a sort of fire alarm that warns you of something wrong with some organ of the body. Most frequently the trouble is indigestion and torpid liver and the pain arises from the poisoned blood passing through the arteries of the brain and head. There is no cure for billous headache, torpid liver and indigestion that can be compared with Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills for prompt and certain relief. This has been proven by so many thousands of letters published from time to time that everybody should know it by this time. Mr. Fred Hinz, Bradenton, Perth County, Ont., writes: "I don't like to have my name in the paper, but feel out of justice to suffering humanity I should tell others of the good I obtained from Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills and Ointment. Years ago I was troubled a great deal with sick headache and was often so bad that I could not work. Being advised to try Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, I did so and can say they have brought about a complete cure. From the first I found that one pill cured my headache quickly every day. Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills and found Dr. Chase's Ointment, the most satisfactory treatment I ever used. It brought relief almost instantly. You won't be satisfied with mere temporary relief when you know your headache can be completely cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Wilson, eldest daughter of Mrs. I. Agar, was united in marriage to Mr. W. H. Bruce, both of Gormley, by the Rev. Mr. Barber, at Stouffville parsonage, after which they returned to Mr. R. Agar's to partake of a dainty dinner, where the nearest relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride wore a dainty dress of ecru embroidered net over ecru silk; her silk embroidered veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. Miss Vina Wilson, cousin of the bride, wore a beautiful blue silk trimmed with silk embroidery and Valenciennes lace and insertion, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Mr. James Mackenzie was best man. Later the happy couple left for short honeymoon, the bride's traveling suit being pearl grey Venetian cloth, and a large white hat trimmed with white ostrich plumes. She also wore a large white ostrich bonnet. On their return they will reside in Gormley.

Technical School Prizes

The examination results in the evening classes of the Technical High School were given out to-day. The Department of the Toronto Board of Education decided upon the prizes, taking into consideration the fact that the ground had been mowed, leveled and seeded last fall, and that it would be injurious to the future appearance of the lawn to allow the grass to be trampled on before it had become well rooted.

As a result of the committee's visit to York and Gloucester schools, it is likely that a complete renovation of the former and an enlarged girls' playground for the latter will be recommended.

IMPROPERLY CONVICTED

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth's Reasons for Releasing Two Men.

OTTAWA, April 15.—I recommended that they be summarily released because, in my judgment, speaking as a lawyer, they were not guilty of the offence which they were charged. The minister of justice in the house this morning thus completed his promise of explanation of the release from prison of L. J. Skill and J. C. King of the Toronto Antiquarian Book Co., sentenced for circulating obscene literature calculated to corrupt morals. "The prisoners," said the minister, "were defended by two gentlemen, each of whom is a personal friend of mine, and as much as Mr. Robinson, the gentlemen are George Tate Blackstock, K.C., of Toronto, and his partner, Hugh Ross."

Mr. Aylesworth said that he believed the men had been engaged in "the ordinary legitimate business of respectable book-selling, the in some of the translated French and Latin classics were passages which, if they were singled out, or collected and published together, might properly be described by the word indecent."
