PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

BATTLE CRY OF PEACE.

All next week the superb and spectacular photo drama, "The Battle Cry of Peace," will be presented at Massey Hall by Robert S. Marvin. Advice from the United States report that wherever this picture—the greatest achievement in the moving-picture world—is being shown all over that country, it is jamming and packing every theatre where it is being presented, and is arousing the intensest enthusiasm. It has quite taken the wind out of the sails of the "No Preparedness" party, it has its warning for people in this country, too. And whoever misses it, will miss a photo drama, which is nothing short of epoch-making. Seats are on sale all this week, and the thing to do, is to book as early as possible, and ensure a comfortable and convenient location. No Canadian who misses this wonderful spectacle will fall to regret it.

STRONG PLAY AT STRAND.

The feature of the Strand Theatre for today and for the balance of this week will be the superbly strong and spectacular photo drama, "The No. 1000." The plot deals with the temptation which came to an upright and honorable man, who was madly in love with his neighbor's wife. The film is in five sensational acts, which include the wreck of the liner in mid-ocean, while thousands of men, women and children are seen battling desperately for life. Tyrone Power is seen in the part of the hero and Kathryn Williams, the lovely and alluring, plays the role of the neighbor's wife.

LOEW'S NEXT WEEK.

For next week the Loew management offer vaudeville's greatest, old-time favorites, James and Bonnie Thornton, in an up-to-date comedy singing and dancing act. The two Thorntons are a very clever pair of old-time funmakers and can easily be remembered by theatre patrons who attended the many different houses in which they have appeared in at the head of the bill. Chas. Morati & Co. are also great favorites here. Mr. Moratti and his capable company of entertainers offer one of the best bridging and dancing numbers ever sent out on this circuit. Murphy and Lachmar are real nut comedians, who have a varied line of funny sayings and new jokes. Ethel McDonough has a strong and well-trained voice, which she uses to good effect in new songs and clever parodies. Ben and Hazel Mann are very good fun furnishers. Tood Nobda, in a thrilling acrobatic number, "A Study in Art," and the sixth instalment of the "Iron Claw" rounds out a high-class performance.

"BELIEVE ME, XANTIPPE."

"Believe Me, Xantippe," the clever three-act play, written by Frederick Ballard, author of this season's triumph, "Young America," will be the attraction offered by the Robins Players at the Alexandra Theatre next week. Seats will be placed on sale today. The capacity houses that are greeting the Robins Players this week indicates that this will be one of the most successful stock seasons in the history of Toronto. The prices are the same as last summer.

MADISON THEATRE.

Dustin Farnum as Ben Blair, the strong-hearted plainman in the Palas picture, "Ben Blair," is given a role that wins the respect and sympathies of all those who enjoy a stirring western story well told. In this production, which is the attraction at the Madison Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dustin Farnum has an exceptionally suitable part to display his robust talents. The screen adaptation is from the well-known book, "Ben Blair," written by the late Will Lillibridge. Winnifred Kingston plays the principal feminine role, the part of Floerine Winthrop, who after a girlhood in the west, descends to the gayeties of society in the east.

The gathering is honored by the presence of the founder of the council, the Marchioness of Aberdeen and Tamar, who last evening gave her illustrated address on "Peasant Cottages in Ireland," which was delivered at the Chateau Laurier under the auspices of the local council of Ottawa.

The delegates are the recipients of many courtesies, a private luncheon being given at Murphy-Gambie's tea-rooms, which was arranged by the local council and on Tuesday and Wednesday special teas were served by Ottawa hostesses.

The business of the meeting dealt with matters of importance along patriotic lines and along the lines of social and moral betterment.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Torrington, Toronto; vice-president, Lady Borden, Mrs. Francis Frost, Mrs. Adam Shortt, Ottawa, and Mrs. W. E. Sanford, Hamilton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, Toronto; treasurer, Mrs. George Watt, Brantford; recording secretary, Mrs. Plumtre, Toronto.

EVERYONE'S ASSISTANCE WILL BE ASKED TODAY

Recruiting League Aims to Raise Thirty-Four Thousand Dollars.

This is Kitchener Day and the citizens are asked to aid the cause of recruiting by giving, everyone what he or she can afford, towards the $34,000 asked for by those who have inaugurated the campaign. The organization for collecting and the division of the city into districts have all been done by Mrs. G. B. Baker, as voluntary service in the cause.

The central headquarters of the movement is the city hall, where the returns will be collected at 5 o'clock. Almost every woman in the city known for her interest in patriotic projects will be among the workers. Lady Hendrie will be at the city hall at noon and Mrs. W. H. Bence will be one of the chaperones of the day.

The battalions to benefit are: 150th, 204th, 216th, 195th, 201st, 204th, 56th, 123rd, 124th, 166th, 170th, the Queen's Own, the 10th Royal Grenadiers, 48th Highlanders, the 109th, 9th Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, 12th York Rangers and 26th Peel Regiment.

Reports read at the 12th annual meeting of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary show that the organization has a senior membership of 6798, the number of branches being 196, and the total list of life members 315. The treasurer showed that the total revenue aggregates $28,000. The sum of $2822.44 had been spent on ecclesiastical furnishings and in answer to special appeals.

The juniors, which consist of 62 branches, support six children in the "Door of Hope" Orphanages, and two in other institutions. Their total receipts were $1284.50.

Ten candidates are in training for work under the general board, the expense coming out of the united thank offering, which at present amounts to $2187.88. Mrs. Cartwright presided at the meetings.

PATRIOTIC WORKS HOLD SUCCESSFUL SALE

One of the latest successes amongst patriotic workers was the sale of home-made cooking put in Tyrrell's old stand by the Women's Canadian Historical Society, the proceeds of which amount to $190, besides a collection of silver which has yet to go into the melting pot. With the aid obtained in this way the association will be able to achieve its object of completing its 2000 pairs of socks for the boys in the trenches.

SOCIETIES AMALGAMATE TO AID RED CROSS WORK

Officers Were Elected at Special Meeting in St. Anthony's Parish Hall Yesterday.

At a special meeting held in St. Anthony's parish hall, Gladstone avenue, Rev. Father McGrand, pastor, presided and introduced Miss Marie Macdonell, who gave an interesting talk on the war and the work of the Red Cross. She also read some letters from the boys in the trenches, which gave a very graphic idea of things as they really are in the war zone.

Much enthusiasm was shown by the fifty women present, who represented the different societies which had been employed along various lines of patriotic work since the outbreak of the war. It was thought well to amalgamate, and in addition to the objects upon which they were already engaged it was decided to supply comforts for the sixty boys from St. Anthony's parish who have gone to the front. There will be two working meetings for this purpose.

The officers elected for the amalgamated society are: Hon. president, Mrs. Marie Macdonell; president, Mrs. Pitts; vice-president, Mrs. O'Leary; treasurer, Miss Kathleen McCrohan; secretary, Miss Mary Irene Fog; convener of purchasing committee, Mrs. Ronshaw.

An estate valued at $1448.18 was owned by Walter James Dicker of 115 Pape avenue, a soldier, who died May 4, 1915. In disposing of his estate in the will deceased gave $50 to Mrs. Nelson Aldred. John Malone, who represented Col. Merritt, pronounces this part of the land as being very suitable for this purpose. The plains are situated about two miles west of Deseronto and are separated from the Bay of Quinte by two hills. They are about one and one-half miles long by a half-mile in width and are perfectly level. The Canadian Northern Railway passes between the range of hills and the plains.
