EXPECT 450 AT ROTARY MEET IN SAINT JOHN

Committees of Local Club Busy Planning For Next Month

TWO-DAY SESSION AT "BEATTY" HOTEL

Delegation of Eleven From Newfoundland Among Those To Attend

THERE will be big happenings in Saint John next month. Preparations are now being made for the holding in this city of the annual spring district conference of the 32nd district of Rotary clubs, which includes organizations in the following places: St. John's, Newfoundland; Charlottetown, Campbellton, Moncton, Fredericton, St. Stephen, Millville, Yarmouth, Kentville, Halifax, New Glasgow, Sydney, the recently-formed club in Truro, and the Saint John club, which will be the host club for the occasion. A gathering of 450 ladies and gentlemen is expected.

To show how Rotary is taking hold of people, at least 11 persons have expressed their intention of making the rather inconvenient trip from St. John's, Nfld., for the purpose of attending the two-day conference here. Among the prominent Rotarians who will be present are John Young, Sydney, the present district governor, and Arthur H. Sapp, of Huntington, Ind., international vice-president.

ON APRIL 22 AND 23.

The conference will be held on April 22 and 23, in the Admiral Beatty Hotel, local headquarters for all Rotary activities, and will consist of business sessions as well as social functions. In addition to the Rotarians from clubs in the district, there are expected to be visitors from the Calais, Eastport, Houlton and Milo, Me. clubs, and it is hoped also to have visitors from Fort Fairfield, Presque Isle, and possibly Bangor.

OPEN ON APRIL 22.

Delegates will arrive in the city on the evening of April 21, and will be met at the hotel by a delegation of the local club. The conference proper will open on the following morning at 10 o'clock, when subjects such as Business Methods, Boys' Work, Rotary Education and Our Maritime Resources will be discussed. Speakers specially qualified to deal with these subjects have been secured from the clubs of the district. At noon on this day, through the courtesy of the Canadian Pacific Railway, a luncheon, of which the ladies of the conference will be given on the steamship Metagama, which will then be in port.

On April 23 the sessions of the conference will be continued, and at noon the ladies will have luncheon in the dining room of the hotel, and gentlemen in the Georgian ballroom, special speakers being provided for each. As this will be a get-away day for the delegates, there are no functions contemplated for the afternoon or evening.

THOSE IN CHARGE.

E. Palmer Kinsman, president of the host club, is chairman of the conference committee, while Donaldson Hunt is the conference secretary, and Sydney Jones, the treasurer. Others in charge of various committees are as follows: Program, H. Mont Jones; hotels, E. J. Terry; registration, Frank P. Lewis; railway communications, Carl Fraser; automobile transportation, J. E. Marr; decorations, A. Ernest Everett; publicity, R. D. Paterson; ladies' entertainment, Dr. J. H. Weston; men's entertainment, George Oland. The singing at the conference will be under the direction of Dr. H. L. Spangler.

ATTENDANCE TROPHY.

A feature of the conference is the offering of an attendance trophy by the Saint John club. This trophy, which will take the form of a Rotary shield, will be competed for by all the other clubs in the district and will go to the club having the largest score, computed in the following manner: The number of miles traveled by the most direct route to the conference city, multiplied by the percentage of the club's attendance at the conference.

During the conference week it is expected there will be Rotary displays in the windows of various stores in the city and every effort will be put forth by the committees to insure success for the conference. Not only are the committees working hard, but every individual Rotarian and lady feels the responsibility of the occasion and is striving to make the conference a memorable one in the annals of Rotary. It is expected there will be 300 Rotarians and 150 ladies registered.

WANDERING YOUNGSTERS.

Audrey Flood, aged three years, was found by Policeman Duffy wandering and lost in Charlotte street yesterday afternoon, and soon afterward Policeman Young found Charles Upton, aged four years wandering about Market Square. The tots were taken to police headquarters for safety and were later called for by their parents and taken to their homes in Golding street. Fascinated by the pretty lights in the store windows, the youngsters strayed away from the vicinity of their homes when allowed to play in front of their residences.

PLEASANT EVENING.

One of the most delightful sessions in the history of the Ever Ready Church was a social held last evening at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Charles R. Freeman. The hostess was assisted by Miss Ida Carver, Mrs. S. S. White, Mrs. John Hersey, Mrs. W. C. Warrack, Mrs. Fred Fullerton, Mrs. James A. Anderson and Mrs. Claude Seely.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Walter P. Stealing, 5 St. David street, was hostess last evening to a number of little girls in honor of her young daughter, Marguerite, on her 7th birthday. A beautiful birthday cake adorned with seven candles, centred the nicely decorated table. Little Miss Thelma Cathers, on behalf of the guests, presented to the guest of honor a pretty gold bracelet. Miss Dorothy Kohler assisted Mrs. Stealing in making the evening pleasant for the guests. Those present were Dorothy, Beulah, Bonnie and Elsie Kohler, Thelma Cathers, Dorothy Manning, Mildred Haines, Phyllis Dean, Annie, Helen and Hazel Lesimore.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times-Star reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "do the people of the Settlement talk much about taxes?"

The gaze which Hiram bent upon the reporter was not one to be described as placid or reassuring. There was in it a disturbing intensity amounting almost to a glare. His whiskers seemed to stiffen and thrust themselves out like a brush.

"Taxes!" he roared, with an energy that startled the reporter. "Look-a-here, Muffer. Man, this country is goin' to the dogs. It's taxes here, an' taxes there—an' taxes from mornin' till night. Past it's one party, an' then another party; but it's alvays taxes."

"The rates and the rates, and the sessions and taxes." "I can't give Riddle-de-dee what he axes," quoted the reporter.

"That's jist it," said Hiram. "What can be done about it?" queried the reporter.

"Bair things up an' git more work an' more people to pay taxes," said Hiram. "Bellerin' about it wont mend no fences. We're loath' taxpayers all the time. That's got to be stopp'd—an' everybody's got to help—By Hen!"

MANY EXPECTED ON SALMON STREAMS

Early Demand For Guides and Equipment For Coming Season

The guides assembled in Fredericton Thursday in annual session gave out the opinion that salmon fishing this spring would be considerably later than for several years. Ordinarily canoes start their downhill drift on the Cain's River—the W. Harry Allen preserve—late in April. Some of the most noted anglers on the continent have whittled this stream while the snow yet stood in high mounds on the banks and before Mayflowers poked through. This season it may be mid-May before the fishing starts.

Mr. Allen has received a large number of applications for guides and accommodations for this spring's run of salmon.

In fact the demand is so great for canoes and camping staffs that extra men are being employed and extra canoes have been ordered. It bids fair to be a record-breaking salmon season.

CURLERS MOURN MR. LINDSAY'S DEATH

Caledonian Vice-president Sends Telegram—Flags at Half-Staff in Saint John

F. W. Coombs, secretary of the New Brunswick branch, Royal Caledonian Curling Club, has received the following telegram from W. C. Murray, vice-president of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club of Edinburgh.

"Please convey to curlers of New Brunswick branch my personal feelings of regret, as well as those of the mother club, at the untimely death, under such tragic circumstances, of Sandy Lindsay."

It will be remembered that Mr. Murray was captain of the Canadian team that visited Scotland last winter, and was closely in touch with Mr. Lindsay during the last visit of the Scottish curlers to Canada in 1923, when Mr. Lindsay was in charge of the arrangements made by the C. N. R. for their accommodation from the time they landed in Halifax until they reached Montreal.

Flags are flying at half-staff from the various Saint John fire stations in the city as a tribute of respect to Mr. Lindsay, who during his newspaper activities in Saint John was a member of the Salvage Corps. Such a note of remembrance indicates the tender memories of the genial Sandy that linger.

BURIAL HERE MONDAY

The funeral of Mr. Lindsay will take place from his late residence in Moncton to St. George's Church there on Monday and the body will be brought to Saint John for interment in Fernhill, there to be laid in the family lot. There will be funeral service in Knox Church at 2.30. Those asked to attend are members of Nos. 1 and 2 Salvage Corps and of the Saint John fire department are requested to meet at the rooms of No. 1 Corps at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral.

"BEATTY" BANQUET CLASSES RE-UNION

Rev. Hugh Miller is Chief Speaker at Enjoyable Scottish Rite Function

The annual reunion of The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, in Valley of Saint John, was brought to a close last evening with a banquet held at the Admiral Beatty Hotel, at which a large number of the members were present.

Vocal solos were given by R. B. Irvine, DeWitt Cairns and Harold Vincent, and recitations by E. T. Short. The usual toasts were honored, and the music was furnished by the Admiral Beatty Hotel orchestra.

The speaker of the evening was the Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., B. D., and his most inspiring address was listened to with marked attention by the large number present.
