

RECORD CROWD ATTENDS OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S BIG FALL EXHIBITION

tion had been wide but New Brunswick had come out of it better than any province in the Dominion, because of the energy and industry of its people. From the agricultural standpoint there were some facts that would not have been any feeling of pessimism. In 1919 New Brunswick had $89,000,000 worth of agricultural products. That had been an exceptionally good year and he would take the year when the products were not abundant, the year of 1920-1921. Then the agricultural products were worth $98,000,000 in New Brunswick, but in Nova Scotia with 100,000 more of population the agricultural products were worth $10,000,000 more than those of New Brunswick. The markets that had been disappointing and there had been losses but a comparison of losses showed that New Brunswick suffered less than the other provinces. Nova Scotia lost $21,000,000, Prince Edward Island $5,000,000, Quebec $128,000,000, and New Brunswick only $11,000,000. Farming was the basic industry of the province and farm produce prices had kept the province up in the time of depression, giving to industry a prosperity not found in other provinces.

He was told New Brunswick was not progressing and his advice was to boost and not to knock but there again he believed the actual trade statistics would convey a different opinion. In 1921 the total of New Brunswick's revenue from forest, farm produce, minerals and fisheries amounted to $103,000,000 while Nova Scotia with its coal mines had a total revenue from these sources of only $108,000,000 and New Brunswick's forests produced $88,000,000 or $2,000,000 more than the coal mines of Nova Scotia.

He was told people were leaving the province constantly. That was true but they were still coming back. In large numbers. The population of New Brunswick increased fifteen per cent from 1900 to 1921 and in the States of Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine the population increased seven and a half per cent. The value of agricultural land in New Brunswick increased four times during that period and in those States it increased only three times. He wished to point out to the young people that they could do better by staying at home than by going across the border as there would be almost sure to find their living. People did not stand up enough for their own province of New Brunswick and were too prone to believe stories that were circulated to discourage.

Premier Veniot appealed to the newspapers to study the trade statistics and to publish the facts regarding the development of the industries of New Brunswick, so that the rising generation might know the position of the province. The twenty-five years of his life were spent in newspaper work, he said.

The natural resources of the province, he said, had only been touched. There were large coal areas which had not been sufficiently opened up. There was magnetic iron ore and vast shale fields. The shale fields were capable of producing 1,000,000 gallons of oil and were waiting for the time when machinery had been manufactured which would make their development profitable. The forest wealth of the province had been diminished by fire and by the bad work of the British Empire Forestry Association had reported that the province was New Brunswick, more than any other, was able to reproduce its forests naturally and in twenty to twenty-five years would have recovered from the loss of the last ten years.

No one could speak of the future of the province, the development of its resources and the expansion of industry without speaking of hydro. He was not going to talk of hydro in St. John, nobody would do that, he believed. In 1920 the government had laid down a hydro policy and was following that policy. If it was in the bounds of possibility to develop Grand Falls the arteries of hydro would be seen extending in all directions throughout the province, and the coming of new industries was assured. The industries would come if they could get cheap power. The most eminent authorities on the continent were being consulted and if it was feasible to develop Grand Falls they would develop it from that development the whole province would benefit. The northern part of the province was seeing a change in the forest wealth policy and was looking to the establishment of pulp mills for which it must secure cheaper power. Hydro at Grand Falls could go to St. Stephen.

WEAK, RUN DOWN AND AILING

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Brought Relief When Other Medicines Failed

Port Mann, B. C.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was tired and run-down. I had headaches and was troubled for two years with sleeplessness. I tried many medicines but nothing did me any real good. While I was living in England I was recommended by a stranger to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am stronger and feel fine since then and am able to do my household work. I am willing for you to use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. I. C. GREAVES, Port Mann, B. C.

Feels New Life and Strength

Keene, N. H.—"I was weak and run-down and had backache and all sorts of troubles which women have. I found great relief when taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am able to do my work and feel new life and strength from the Vegetable Compound. I am doing all I can to advertise it."—Mrs. A. F. HAMMOND, 72 Carpenter Street, Keene, N. H.

Sick and ailing women everywhere in the Dominion should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

to Musquash, to Chipman, to Sussex, to Campbellton and to Miramichi, would complete a circuit of the province with the exception of a link of fifty miles between the northern section and the city of Moncton. The next few weeks would bring the knowledge of whether this development was possible or not. If it were possible, industry would receive such an impetus that for a time the young folks could be assured of employment and the province as a whole would be assured of progress and prosperity.

A Patriotic Call

Discussing still another feature of the times of depression Premier Veniot said the people were urged to emigrate to New England States and to New York because higher wages were paid there for labor and there were chances. These high wages were the aftermath of war times. The United States had grown rich out of the war and Canada had accumulated a debt of two billions of money, taking no reckoning of the invaluable lives sacrificed. The province of New Brunswick had well born its share during the war. Full credit must be given the United States for coming in on the side of the allies but the United States lost nothing by the war.

The Premier's closing words were: "The sooner we impress upon our young people, especially those who served overseas, that while war had its responsibility, there is a greater duty in fighting in times of peace to build up Canada and make her prosperous as she was before the war, the sooner will New Brunswick become a great and happier and a more prosperous New Brunswick and the greatest province in the Dominion in which to live."

Mrs. H. P. Newcombe

Mrs. H. P. Newcombe, who was the next speaker had for her subject "The Voice of an Exhibition." In a witty and entertaining manner yet with much force of logic and eloquence she told of the inspiration to be found in an exhibition and the bearing upon all phases of national life. Mrs. Newcombe was given a very cordial reception and was frequently applauded.

Lieut.-Governor Todd

Hon. W. F. Todd, Lieutenant Governor of the province, congratulated the Exhibition Association on the progress of the evening. Some splendid optimism had been preached. He referred to the natural beauty of New Brunswick and declared that he did not believe the beauty of scenery was exceeded anywhere. These natural resources were attracting many tourists and would attract increasingly more tourists in time to come. With the two last speakers he agreed that the province was soon to see splendid prosperity. Immigration was the best needed to develop the natural resources. In the west of Canada a virgin soil was being depleted and in the fields of the west would be as attractive to settlers. The province had immense rivers which might be opened up by hydro and hydro applied to the industry of agriculture would make it more attractive. In St. John there was a wonderful harbor and in the future it must see immense wealth in the shipping of its port. In forests, fisheries and minerals the province had much wealth and where the minerals were not known they would be as attractive to settlers.

Change of Water Change of Climate Cause DIARRHOEA

Mr. Fred Palmer, 217 Dalhousie St., Brantford, Ont., writes:—"When first went out to the North-West water supply had been cut off and I was drinking water from a well, and being in a remote spot I could not get anything to give me relief for any length of time. I wrote and told my wife about the time I was having and she sent me a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I took it and I cannot speak too highly of it for what it did for me. Whenever the children have any bowel trouble from eating fruit or drinking strange water, which they have done for the past five years, living in the country, the only remedy we use is Dr. Fowler's, and nobody should be without it as it cannot be beat for instant relief."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 78 years, you don't experiment with new and untried remedies when you buy it, but be sure and get Dr. Fowler's when you ask for it as a substitute may be dangerous to your health.

The vessel, which ran aground yesterday, had two gaping holes in her hull and it was not considered safe to permit them to remain aboard despite the heavy fog and pitch black darkness, which made the work of rescue doubly hazardous.

A GOOD CONTEST IS ANTICIPATED

Young Gradwell Says McIntyre is Hardest Man He Ever Met.

That St. John fans will witness the best boxing bouts exhibition week ever staged in St. John for some time is certain. Word received from Willie "Young" Gradwell, of Somerville, who is in line to meet Benny Leonard, states that the Somerville boxer is eager to make a reputation in the Maritime Provinces and he has chosen St. John as a starting point.

He says he considers Johnny McIntyre, the former welterweight champion of the Maritime Provinces, the best welterweight fighter in Canada. When the pair last met Gradwell received a decision over McIntyre, and he said that McIntyre was the hardest man he ever met.

Boston newspapers state that Benny Leonard said that Gradwell was the "toughest bird" he ever met. This would put the final nail in the exhibition week card is the best that has been put on in St. John.

There is also the second bout between the champion of Winnipeg, Gordon Paris, of St. John, the local favorite. Fans who saw Groff give Healey the fight of his life expect him to get a decision over Paris.

On the other hand, Paris has returned from a vacation in Nova Scotia and looks to be in the best of condition. He should put up the best fight of his career. The decision in this bout means much to both fighters. To Groff it means that he may remain in St. John, where his plucky fight against Healey won him many friends. To Paris it means he will have a chance to stay with the newcomers, which promoters of clean boxing in this city will bring. The loser of this boxing match will be reduced to the third class, a position which neither of the boxers wish to be given.

With the crowds attending the exhibition, it is expected that the arena will be crowded the evening of the boxing match. The popular mode of reserving ringside seats will have the support of the boxing fans of this city. It is a service which they have felt they were entitled to.

To Make Hairs Vanish From Face, Neck or Arms

(Beauty Culture)

Keep a little powdered delatone handy, and when hairy growths appear make a paste with some of the powder and a little water, then spread over hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair or blemish. This simple treatment is unfailing, but could be exercised to be sure and get genuine delatone, otherwise you may be disappointed.

I Never Saw Its Equal, Says Hamilton Nurse

"In all my experience with medicines and caring for the sick I have never come across anything to equal Tanlac," said Mrs. Elizabeth E. Murray, 168 Barnside Ave., Hamilton, Ont. Mrs. Murray has had considerable experience as a nurse, and is widely known and highly esteemed.

"About three years ago my stomach commenced to trouble me and I got so bad I thought my time was getting short. I had severe pains in my stomach and sides and gas caused such a smothering sensation I just had to gasp for breath. I was afraid to eat, knowing the agony I would suffer. I became very nervous and always had to have someone else thread my needle for me. My rest was so broken I seemed that I would never get a good night's sleep. I felt tired and weak and it was an effort to look after my house.

"It was astonishing how Tanlac helped me. My indigestion, well, disappeared entirely, my appetite is wonderful and I now eat my regular meals without any bad effects. My nerves are in perfect condition, I can thread needles at dusk, and I never wake up during the night and I feel so strong and well my housework is more like play. Tanlac has done away with my troubles and I simply can't praise it enough. My husband has also taken Tanlac with excellent results."

THREE EACH IN CHAMPIONSHIPS

SAINT ROSES MAKE SWEEP AT CHATHAM

St. Peter's and Fredericton to Meet Again Thursday in Capital.

St. Peter's and Fredericton are still tied for the championship of the Two-I League as a result of an even break in the series over the week-end. On Saturday two games were played, Fredericton winning the afternoon fixture 9 to 3 and St. Peter's the evening game 8 to 1. Yesterday two more games were played, the morning game being won by Fredericton 9 to 4 and the afternoon game by St. Peter's 8 to 0. As a result each team has three wins and three losses in their nine game series.

In the first game on Saturday the Capital boys put the game on ice in the first inning when they netted four runs. They secured one more in the third and four more in the eighth. In the evening contest only seven innings were played as a result of an agreement between the teams. St. Peter's played better ball in this game and won.

Yesterdays morning the home team was away off form and the game was one of the poorest of the series.

In the afternoon, however, they were in real championship form and played gilt edge ball behind Ralph Price, who turned in one of the best games of the season. He held the heavy hitting Fredericton players to two hits and struck out five. On the other hand St. Peter's took kindly to Noonan's offerings and netted ten hits. At both games yesterday the attendance was large, particularly in the afternoon, cold wind swept through the stands, but this was unheeded and interest in the play was manifested throughout.

A large number of Fredericton rooters were present and they helped to keep things lively. The attendance in the afternoon was about 3,000. The next game in the series will be played on Thursday in Fredericton.

Thomas Stuart Moffatt of Victoria and Alfred J. Wise of Angus have been awarded the free scholarships of the Canadian Pacific Railways. They made 811 and 782 marks, respectively.

My Debt of Gratitude

"Ulcers the Size of Man's Hand."

Our portrait is of Mr. G. M. THOMPSON, of 4, Midland Grove, Edward Rd., Balaclava, Balaclava, Balaclava. He writes: "In July last I happened to get a scratch on my leg. It was so slight I took no notice of it till a fortnight elapsed, when I found I could not go to work. It gradually grew worse, when it turned septic, from this period it got from bad to worse till at length the sores turned into ulcers. I had at that particular time ulcers the size of a man's hand covering my leg. After I had tried nearly everything I read about your Ulcer Mixture and decided to take it; it was then in the month of October, and after the second bottle, I found relief. I continued until the seventh bottle when I found myself completely rid of the trouble. You can
