GREY FEARED BREAK.

Viscount Grey of Fallodon, former Secretary of Foreign Affairs, who expressed the fear that the British government's policy in the Near East would result in a breach of relationships with France.

N. R. DESBRISAY AWAY TO TAKE UP NEW DUTIES

N. R. Desbrisay, who has been district passenger agent of the C. P. R. here, and who was recently promoted to assistant general passenger agent of the western lines from Winnipeg to Fort William, left on the C. N. Early Saturday afternoon C. B. Allan and E. A. Schofield called at the home of Mr. Desbrisay and presented him with a pipe and case and a silver cigarette case in recognition of his services to the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association, of which Mr. Desbrisay has held the office of president for the last two years. The presentation was made by Mr. Schofield on behalf of the association and he expressed his appreciation for the work which Mr. Desbrisay had accomplished since taking over the presidency of the association. F. W. Robertson, general passenger agent of the C. N. R. at Moncton, is the vice-president and he will carry on the duties of the president until the next annual meeting in June. C. B. Boy! Page Mr. Einstein

THE shortest distance between a seller and a buyer is a straight line. If there is any shorter, let us page Mr. Einstein and ask him about it.

In advertising, the Daily Newspaper is the most direct line possible, and the customer you seek keeps the kinks out of it. He sees that he gets his newspaper at the earliest possible moment. He is not satisfied to wait until the postman delivers something that has been "directed" to him at his home address.

When the daily newspaper passes into the reader's hands, it is expected, welcomed and read. It has his interest before it even gets to him. He will complain loudly to the newsdealer if an issue escapes him. He will stand in the heat and the cold while the newsboy fumbles for change. When the delivery brings the daily paper to a home, it is taken in eagerly by someone.

Did anyone ever telephone your office to complain that your circular or form letter had not arrived? Have you ever noticed men waiting in line for the postman to deliver your printed matter? Have you ever seen the daily newspaper slipped off the desk or the supper table while second class mail is read to the family? Until you have, let us be honest and distinguish between "direct" advertising and printed matter "directed" to your address.

Issued by the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association, Toronto.

He was arraigned before Police Magistrate James P. Kelly, pleaded guilty to the charges, and was remanded for sentence until Tuesday, Sept. 26. CITY SWIMMING BATHS CLOSED

The public swimming baths at Rowan's wharf were closed on Saturday afternoon for a very successful season. This year many children were taught to swim, under the supervision of Mark Burns. Many women took up swimming for the first time this year. Commissioner Bullock said the attendance had been good throughout the season, and he was looking forward to making improvements to the baths and surroundings next year. As a matter of fact the Indian town bathing and swimming facilities afforded during the summer, opportunities for out-door amusement daily for scores of school children, and the muscular development of youngsters during the season can be readily recognized by any one visiting the baths.

At the swimming meet pupils from the public baths provided a large share of the swimming and diving programme carried out so successfully. Again this year there have been no accidents of any description, despite the many youngsters who swam in the waters of Marble Cove.

Rev. Hugh Miller, of Campbellton, who has accepted the call to St. David's Presbyterian church, is expected to arrive in the city tonight. His induction is to take place tomorrow night in St. David's church.

POTATO WAREHOUSE NOW ASSURED HERE

Public Works Department
Issues Order For Building on Representations of T. W. Caldwell.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—T. W. Caldwell, M. P., who is in the capital in connection with his scheme to assist in marketing the potato crop of New Brunswick, called on the deputy minister of trade and commerce this morning to ask the assistance of that department to ascertain the possibilities of developing trade with Florida and other southern coast states with the result that the deputy minister dispatched the following message before Mr. Caldwell left his office:

To Frederic Hudd, Canadian Trade Commissioner, 44 Whitehall Street, New York:

"Important, please arrange yourself or send Palmer to Woodstock, N. B., to meet shippers of potatoes and hay on Tuesday, Sept. 26, in order to obtain full information with regard to export business, and thereafter proceed to southern state ports to investigate possibilities of extending trade there. Matter urgent. Report to O. R. Estey, Woodstock, N. B. Please wire confirmation."

(Sgd.) "F. C. T. O'HARA, Deputy Minister Trade and Commerce."

The department of public works also approved of Mr. Caldwell's request for a frost-proof warehouse at West St. John today and issued an order to have work on same, commence at once with a view to having it completed by Nov. 1.

Mr. Caldwell has also been in conference with C. P. R. officials with a request that they should absorb the terminal charge at St. John of three cents per hundred pounds on potatoes for export and is in receipt of the following telegram:

Montreal, Sept. 23, '22.

T. W. Caldwell, 97 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa:

We are agreeable absorb cost of unloading.

(Sgd.) E. N. TODD, For C. P. R.

Mr. Caldwell is to have a further conference with the officials of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine at Montreal on Monday with regard to putting some of their vessels on between St. John and southern ports to handle shipments of potatoes and hay and hopes to get a satisfactory arrangement made.

Mr. Caldwell deserves commendation for his energy and perseverance in the above matter and is to be congratulated on the success that has attended his efforts to relieve the very serious condition of the potato market.

CHOPIN MONUMENT FOR WARSAW PARK

Italian Royal Academy of Fine Arts Urges Its Completion.

Rome, Aug. 23.—(By mail)—The Italian Royal Academy of Fine Arts, under the presidency of the sculptor and politician, Professor Ferrari, has adopted unanimously a resolution in favor of the completion of the Polish national monument to Chopin which was to have been erected in the public park of Warsaw ten years ago. A copy of the resolution has been handed to the Polish Minister in Rome and forwarded to the Polish government.

Twelve years ago the Polish sculptor, M. Szymanowski, was adjudged winner of an open competition for the design of this monument, and at the time the enthusiasm for this model was so great that there were public demonstrations in the streets of Warsaw in its favor. It represents the great composer seated at the foot of a tree, listening to the music of the wind through the branches. The work of casting the monument was judged by M. Szymanowski too difficult and delicate to be done anywhere except in Paris and though the judges of the competition desired the casting to be done in Warsaw itself, it was decided to transport the model to Paris. When the war broke out half the model was in Paris and the other half was detained in Cracow, where it still remains, for since the Armistice independent Poland has had too many other calls upon her treasury.

M. Szymanowski himself lives in Rome in great poverty in the midst of his works of art, which he cannot afford to have cast into bronze. He has not even received the prize money which he won twelve years ago. The Italian Royal Academy of Fine Arts hopes that its vote in favor of the completion of the monument will serve to remind Poland of the importance of erecting this memorial to one of the greatest of her sons.

ENTERTAINMENT WAS SUCCESSFUL

The recent tea and musicale held in the new parish building of St. John the Baptist church, Broad street, which was formerly the Wilgins Orphan Asylum, it is expected, will have realized between $800 and $900. Rev. J. J. McDermott announced in the church yesterday that the returns already made amounted to $761.88, and it was believed that there was still $150 outstanding as the proceeds of ticket sales. The expenses in connection with the highly successful undertaking amounted to only $12. Father McDermott congratulated the members of the congregation on the splendid results of their well managed entertainment. The proceeds of the tea and musicale were to go towards payment of the debt on the new building.

the head of King street and played from there to the rink by way of the ferry. On their arrival the fair was declared open and merry whirling commenced. CAUSE OF PEACE GROWS STRONGER, SAYS BARON BYNG

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Saskatoon, Sask., Sept. 23.—Speaking at a public reception tendered him here last night, Baron Byng of Vimy, governor-general of Canada, declared there was taking place, despite apparently adverse reports, a gradual improvement in the intercourse of nations and an even larger interest in the cause of world peace. He referred to the treatment of the present difficulties in the Near East as an illustration, and expressed a belief that an educated public opinion throughout the empire would have a moral effect upon disturbing elements that should go far towards maintaining stabilized conditions.

WHAT ONE MAN DOES TO SUPPORT A TITLE

London, Sept. 1.—(A. P. by mail)—It is hard to be relatively poor, yet compelled by the circumstance of birth to hide the fact and even play the part of a mad-cap spender.

A certain lord writes to a London newspaper:

"I have to wear a tall hat and the tall coat of conventionality. I have to tip well and cheerfully, and at the same time count every penny. When friends from abroad come to town I have to entertain them—which is a pleasure, but, oh! the plotting and the planning and mean little economies that I have to practise! Without a title I should be a comparatively happy man. But I inherited it and I cannot shed it."

"A wealthy American once said to me, 'You British peers have a jolly good time!' I tried to explain to him that we, too, had responsibilities, but he countered this by saying, 'I would give anything to be a man of title! And I would have given a great deal to be plain 'Mr.' with all his money!'"

Public Now Prefers Vegetable Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin affords prompt relief in a natural way. The public is constantly becoming more discriminating in its choice of things. Those subject to constipation try to learn what makes them constipated, and then avoid it. If constipation persists in spite of all their efforts to take the mildest, most easily tolerated laxative obtainable, and not a drastic physic that upsets them for days afterwards. As over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin are sold a year, a large proportion of the people must believe that this mild vegetable compound is the proper remedy for them, and so it is. No need to take salt waters and powders that dry up the blood; coal-tar drugs in candy form that produce skin eruptions, or calomel that salivates. These drugs are "heroic measures," over-effective, weakening and griping.

The best constipation remedy is the one that moves the bowels without shock to your system, and such a one is Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It is a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics, and has been satisfactorily sold for 30 years. Unlike the harsher physics it does not produce a habit, and increased doses are not required; in fact, it so trains the stomach muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

Many take a teaspoonful of Syrup Pepsin once a week as a health safeguard. Others use it only when required, as, for example, Mrs. Jack Turle of Cherry Valley, Ont., who finds it equally valuable for herself and the children, and Mr. H. S. McLaren of Montreal, Que., who uses it regularly. Try Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin in constipation, biliousness, piles, headaches, sallow complexion, and to break up fevers and colds. A generous-size bottle can be had at any drug store, and it costs less than a cent a dose!

REJECTED MANUSCRIPTS FILL TRUNK OF WOMAN SUICIDE
Santa Ana, Cal., Sept. 23.—A trunkful of manuscripts, with each of which was a printed editorial rejection, was in the room in a hotel here where the body of Miss Miriam Strong, a writer of Long Beach, Cal., was found hanging. A note told of literary disappointments and fear of old age in the poorhouse.

Fashions for Autumn

The Frocks, the Suits, the Wraps, the Blouses, the Skirts, the Accessories,—they're all here in the glory of another new season. The new Autumn colorings are truly delightful, so entirely different and yet so very fascinating.

The Autumn Wraps Are Chiefly Coats Not Is That the Only Innovation

The most striking characteristic of the fall wraps is that almost every one of them has sleeves, real sleeves in the genuine coat fashion even though it is styled on wrappy lines. This achieves a costume at once dressy and yet more practical than the sleeveless wrap of recent seasons. But there are other features to tempt you; exquisite combinations of fur with fabric, allover embroideries and decorative girdles—$25 to $100

The Suit Is a Distinguishing Feature of the Autumn Mode

These are in delightful materials of fine time Polart Twill, Serge, Broadcloth, Velveteen. There is the strictly tailored suit or there are the semi-tailored and loose-fitting models with rich embroidery and luxurious fur-trimming. Many new shades are showing and the prices are really very moderate—$37.50 to $95.00

Smartly Costumed Women Are Frocks in the New Fall Sty

Quite effective are the new long skirts with side drapes and becoming flowing or horse sleeves. Such rich materials as Velveteen, Cants and Satin Cants in a goodly array of colorings; and of course the wool frocks developed from Botany Serge and Tricoline are very popular with their rich embroideries—$15 to $45

Fox Furs to Adorn the Fall Costume

Beautiful Cross and Silver Fox Furs have come to us direct from the ranches. Furs that will add a wonderful charm to your fall costume.

Blouses Travel New Ways in the Fall

The new Blouses have their own sweet way it seems, and they are very picturesque and lovely in Bokara or crepe silks that are embroidered or beaded. Then there are others that are quaint and charming that have been influenced by the ideas of a Russian peasantry—$4.75 to $15.75 Handmaides of the finest Batiste—$3.50 to $6.50

The Athletic Girl—The Regular Girl Ask Her About the New Wool SKIRTS

She will tell you there's nothing like them for the better half of a jaunty all-around costume. That topped off with a gay sweater she wears hers for golf, that accompanied by a crisp tailored blouse she feels fit for the day's business in town. She'll also say that they're ever so swaggar this fall—$5.75 to $20
