CATARRH Of the Stomach For Eight Years

The cause of this trouble is the fermentation of food in the stomach which generates a gas that is very frequently belched up. There is also a rumbling of the bowels and a discharge of gas therefrom, there is constant retching, and the meals are frequently vomited. There is a burning pain in the stomach, the appetite is feeble, the tongue coated, the breath bad, constipation is generally present and the sufferer becomes weak, nervous, depressed and exceedingly miserable.

The blame lies with a sluggish liver, as it holds back the bile which is so necessary to promote the movement of the bowels, and when the bile gets into the blood a badly disordered condition of the stomach, liver and bowels will surely follow.

Keep your liver active and you will always enjoy good health.

Mrs. Agnes Galt, Reserve Mines, N. S. writes: "I had been a great sufferer for eight years from catarrh of the stomach. I tried several so-called cures without relief until a friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, which I did, and four visits completely relieved me. That was six years ago, and I have had no return of my old trouble."

FED UP WITH LIFE: TURNS GIPSY

"I felt just fed up with everything, with clothes and money and things; tired of the whole life. Then a sudden impulse came to me to go out and leave it all."

That was the reason—in her own words—given by Miss Pamela Beckett, the beautiful eighteen-year-old daughter of the Hon. Rupert and Mrs. Beckett, for her disappearance from home. It was the fragmentary story she told to George Gee, a young cottager, and his wife of Newgate street, a remote village on the Hertfordshire Essex borders, who found Miss Beckett living in a lonely spot of the Home Woods, by Cuffley.

She had no plans at all when she left her home in Grosvenor street on Tuesday. Her one vague idea was this:—

"I wanted to join up with the gipsies. I remembered them when we lived near Potter's Bar. They used to camp near us with their caravans, and I always thought how nice the life must be."

This pretty young girl, with her pearl necklace and other jewelry, her money and her furs, wandered for two days and nights along the highways and byways in the country northeast of London without molestation or harm.

"I had no food at all, but I bought a newspaper to see the result of the Cambridge-shire, for I had a bet with my father about the race."

"One night two men in a motor-car stopped me and asked where I was going. One of them said that I could not stay out and drove me to his house. His wife asked me to go to bed, but I would not do that, and lay down on a couch. When everybody was asleep I got up, opened the front door and ran away."

RINGS OF DEATH.

The employment of rings for criminal purposes was common in olden days.

Hannibal, we are told, from a fear of being delivered up to the Romans, swallowed poison, which, to be prepared for the worst, he carried with him in the hollow of a ring.

In these days hollow rings were put together with a degree of skill far beyond that of modern jewelers. Sometimes the poison was concealed beneath

DON'T NEGLECT BRONCHITIS

The principal symptom of bronchitis is a cough which is dry, harsh and hacking, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of tightness through the chest.

There is a raising of phlegm, especially in the morning after rising from bed. This phlegm is at first of a light color, but as the trouble progresses it becomes of a yellowish or greenish color and is sometimes streaked with blood.

DR. WOODS' NORWAY PINE SYRUP

You will find a remedy that will stimulate the weakened bronchial organs, subdue the inflammation, soothe the inflamed parts, loosen the phlegm and mucus, and help nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulation.

Mr. John H. Root, 40 Maple Ave., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with bronchitis and had a very bad cough. I had it so long I was beginning to get afraid of other developments. I tried all kinds of cough remedies without relief. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle, and it convinced me to believe that I had at last gotten the right medicine. I used several bottles and am practically well. I have recommended it to others since, and good results followed."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it; price, 35c. and 60c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
