LOCAL NEWS

THE PRICE OF COAL
 D. H. Smith of Chesley street writes to the Times enclosing a receipted bill showing the price of Sydney coal at Fredericton to have been $9 in July. He also states that hard coal in Fredericton is $14. Furthermore, he says a local concern got Pictou coal through a St.
 John dealer and sold it to their employes at $6.50 a ton.

PORTER-WARD.
 On Wednesday, Sept. 11, a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ward of Glassville, N. B., when his daughter, Jennie Josephine, was united to Charles W. G. Porter of Bristol, N. B. The ceremony was performed at 10.30 o'clock a. m. by Rev.
 M. Mansel in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives of the bride.
 After a wedding repast, Mr. and Mrs.
 Porter, amidst hearty good wishes, left by auto for Bath, where they took the train for a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Porter will reside in Bristol.

HE GAVE HIS LIFE

This is a picture of Sergt. John F.
 Bastain, who went overseas with the 132nd Battalion and was killed in action on Aug. 28. Besides his loving parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bastain, of Rogers-ville, N. B., he leaves four brothers—Herbert of St. John, Charles, now in hospital at Reginald's, William and Ernest at home; and four sisters—Mrs. John Wells and Mrs. Harry Scott, St. John West; Mrs. R. Wood, Acadville, N. B., and Mrs. R. Wood, Campbellton.

OUT OF THE HEART OF THE BATTLE

Word From Husband Comes to Mrs. E. Ogler; Also Cards Found on Dead German Lad

Right from under the barrage of victorious Canadian guns comes a pencilled greeting of good cheer to Mrs. E. Ogler of Lombard street, one of the staff of matrons in the Imperial Theatre. The brief letter from her husband states that it is his eleventh day of continuous fighting and twelfth day without taking off his clothes or even unlacing his boots.
 The missive expressed the sincere thanks of the St. John lad to kind Providence at his being spared through such a carnage as he had seen, a battle in which his chums were picked off on all sides.

Enclosed with his letter were two picture postcards taken off the body of a dead German lad. One was from a sister named Elsie and the other from a brother. The postmarks were Legnitsa and Georgensvalde and the colored views showed pretty home scenes which doubtless stirred the emotions of the chap who cherished them. A little light on the two-sidedness of war from the domestic viewpoint was mutely conveyed in these cards so soiled with affectionate handwriting.

Private Ogler enlisted in western Canada and was allowed home on sick leave. He returned about three months ago to re-enter the struggle. While he is fighting in France his wife works industriously at home for the sake of the family of small children and in the fond hope that soon the nightmare of war will be over.

NEW GOVERNOR OF BARBADOES IN CITY

Lieut. Col. O'Brien Fought in South African War—Came Here From Indian Ocean

Lieut.-Colonel O'Brien, son of a former governor of Newfoundland, and late governor of the Geychelle Islands in the Indian Ocean, passed through the city at noon en route to Halifax to embark for Barbadoes, British West Indies, to which gubernatorial post the gentleman has recently been promoted. Colonel O'Brien succeeds Sir Leslie Probyn, who is promoted to government house in Jamaica, B.W.I.

The visiting dignitary explained to his interviewer that it was his first visit to this side of the ocean. His arrival in New York and his brief stay there, also his journey through to the eastern provinces had been a delightful revelation to him. He was sorry not to have more time to view our country.

Lieut.-Col. O'Brien says he has many warm friends and acquaintance in Canada whom he met and fraternized with in the South African war. He trusts soon to be able to return to the mainland and seek them out, also to get in closer touch with the Canadian colony and nation.

The new governor of Barbadoes was accompanied by his wife, several children and aide-de-camp. The children were deeply grieved in all that was going on.

BACK TO THE
 OLD HOME AFTER 41 YEARS AWAY

St. John Has a Visit From
 T. Vesey DeLue

HELPING TO WIN THE WAR
 Resumes Business at Call of Washington to Make Army Tents and Hammocks—Meets Old Friends Here

One of the most interesting visitors the city has welcomed in a long while is T. Vesey DeLue, who with his wife, is at the Clifton House. Mr. DeLue has not visited St. John for more than forty-one years, and naturally sees many radical changes.

The former resident has been engaged in sail-making, tent, hammock and other manufactures of that class in Boston since he left here before the Civil War.
 He has succeeded in generous measure and although he retired from active work a decade ago, the exigencies of the present great war forced him into business again.

Almost four score years of age, Mr.
 DeLue is executing for the United States government an order of 100,000 military tents and 40,000 hammocks. A son is assisting in the superintendence of the twenty-four-hour run of the factory, where double shifts are rushing the army equipment into shape.

To convey some conception of the immensity of an order of this size, Mr.
 DeLue says that the brass required to make grumets (eye bolts) for the hammocks alone weight eight tons and cost more than $600 a ton.

It is a noteworthy fact that the visiting Bostonian did similar work for the Northern armies during the American Civil War, for it is not often a span of years amounting almost to two generations intervenes between government contracts of this unusual character in the life of the same manufacturer.

Speaking of old St. John and new St. John, Mr. DeLue claims for the city astounding strides. "I must say," he asserted, "that when I left here we had what we would call a 'mean' city. Now I am delighted to say the city is really beautiful and alert, surprisingly so to me. Your buildings are substantial your people look happy and prosperous your soldiers are splendid."

Nearly all his landmarks are gone and old friends and acquaintances practically wiped out. George Holder, sailmaker; Colonel A. Blain; J. N.
 Goding, Sr., are about the nearest of the old friends still alive. Mr. DeLue was best man for Mr. Goding's wedding more than fifty-three years ago. The two spent a reminiscent afternoon and evening yesterday.

Though nearly half a century of strenuous business might be expected to have dulled recollections, from the mind of a former resident, Mr. DeLue recalls with exactness many important incidents of long-ago days when wooden shipbuilding flourished and he was active in sailmaking, even back to the days of apprenticeship under John Gardner at fifteen sterling a year.

It is good to hear the white-haired visitors tell how the old town has changed for the better and doubly good to have the opportunity of renewing the old-time sentiments that even the place of the old buildings is still retained. It is a great joy to Mr. DeLue that he is able to participate indirectly in a war of freedom in which his old flag and the flag of his adoption are side by side nailed to the masthead.

OLD GARLETON CORNET BAND WINS NEW HONORS OVERSEAS

The band of the 140th Battalion, formed chiefly from members of the Garleton Cornet Band, who volunteered in a body, is winning fresh laurels since it has been attached to the famous "Princess Patricia." One of the members writes that the band has improved wonderfully since crossing to France and has received much praise in every place where it has played.

The time of writing, the band was filling a six weeks engagement at the Hamilton Gault theatre, one of the military theatres behind the lines. One recent engagement, of which the bandmen are inclined to be proud was their selection to play at the Royal Air Service Headquarters on August 8. This was regarded as a great honor and that the band was worthy of it was shown by the ovation received.

As their old friends here may be interested in the class of music the band is playing in France, the programme rendered at this engagement is given. It is as follows:

March—Joojies 71st N. Y. Regiment—Boyer.
 Overture—Serenade—Rossini.
 Selection—The Bohemian Girl—Balfe.
 Waltz—Lille D'Amour—Balfout.
 Patriotic Selection—For King and Country—Hume.
 Overture—The Bronze Horse—Aubert.
 Clarinet solo—Mignon Grand Polonaise —Thomas—Sergt. H. H. Williams.
 Selection—Grand Selection Faust—Gou-nod.
 Waltz—Hydwhaten—Williams.
 Selection—High Jinks—Hauterbach.
 Overture—Stradella—Flotow.
 Euphonium solo—Longing for Home —Thomas—Bandman W. Weedon.
 Selection—Chu Chin Chow.
 March—Halifax Carnival—Barwood.
 God Save The King.
 Bandmaster C. H. Williams, W. O.

THE WHITZMAN CASE

To the Editor of the Times:
 It is unjust to the undersigned, I desire to draw attention of the many friends in the city and throughout the province to the fact that although the several newspapers have described the above case as a charge of theft, I wish it understood that the charge against the undersigned was not one of theft, but of buying goods knowing some to be stolen, the result of which a jury completely exonerated the undersigned with their only justifiable verdict of Not Guilty.
 Yours truly,
 M. WHITZMAN.

SPECIAL SPECIAL

On Tuesday, Sept. 17, we are going to offer fifty of these Casseroles, exactly as illustrated, at $1.99 each, far below the usual price. The dish is round and measures 8 inches across, a convenient size for the average family. It is made from brown and whiteware, brown outside and white-glazed inside, and the heat of the oven will not crack it. The special advantage is that the dish is also used for serving, and is taken directly from the oven, placed in the bright plated metal holder and is ready for the table.

We have only fifty of these, and will sell them only on the one day. If you secure one, you will wonder how you ever got along without it. If you don't, you will wonder how you came to miss such a snap.
