The Prize List Indicates the Wide Scope of the Society's Operations.

The annual fall show of the Cowichan Agricultural Society was held at Dun can on Saturday, and although a drizzle of rain fell throughout the day a good crowd attended to view the products of the district. The prize list, which fol-lows, gives a more comprehensive out-line of the scope of the society's exhibi-tion than could be done in any other way. The Cowichan show is increasing is preparting year, by years and is one way. The Cowichan show is increasing in proportions year by year and is one of the best demonstrations to be had that Vancouver Island is not only rich in mineral wealth, but fertile as well in the production of cereals, roots and fruit. The prize list is as follows:
