Export Liquor Warehousemen Become Active

Manitoba Towns Want to Open Places on the Saskatchewan Border

WINNIPEG, Dec. 28.—As a result of the rescinding of the order in-council the offices of the local liquor license department are being besieged by persons desiring to know if the opening of liquor warehouses in the city and province is possible. Numerous requests from Saskatchewan have been received by the department desiring information regarding the permissibility of establishing liquor warehouses in many of the border towns for the purpose of catering toward the Saskatchewan patrons. Among the towns mentioned are Reston, Virden, Rivers, Elkhorn, Russell, Binneworth and Dauphin. According to J. N. McLean, liquor administrator, quoting from the Manitoba Temperance act, the opening of bonded export liquor warehouses must be confined to cities, these requests must all meet with refusal.
