Good No. 2 Yellow corn $1.65 per bag of 100 lbs. each at H. McGrattan & Sons.

C. V. Wetmore of Sydney, was in town Monday. He says there is no longer any doubt in regard to the working of the iron deposits at Lepreau. "People in this section do not realize what it means for the country. Before eighteen months two thousand men will be working at Lepreau."

On Saturday night some of the boys (?) evidently became strong as the bears of the evening wore away. They tore up trees, tumbled over everything loose, sent the bridge lamp down to "Davy Jones' Locker" and scattered the lighting apparatus, at McLeod's corner, all over the street. There is little fun and no satisfaction in such actions.

Canada is to have the largest ice breaker in the world. If communication with P. R. I. is to be kept up during the cold snap the ice breaker cannot be too powerful.

Special sale of furs at S. McKays, Pennfield. See adv.

Sixty three years ago Mr. John O'Brien saw Berwick Douglas—Capt. Highe's father—set out the Balm of Gilead trees, in the Cook field. Old age and the stress of weather had rendered them a menace, so last week Dr. Taylor had them out down. Their removal has changed the background of the Town and the appearance of that section of the town generally.

Beaver Harbor—E. W. Cross, Hmery Paul, Bert Paul.
St. George—N. Meating, Charles Johnson, James Jack, Vaughan Connell, John Crickard, Joseph M. McCormick, Samuel Austin, Alfred Mealy, James Fraser.

Mrs. S. Hinds, a sister of Mrs. J. E. Lynott, died of pneumonia, at her home in Brooklyn, on Tuesday last. News of her death will be heard with regret. In years past, Mrs. Hinds had been a frequent visitor here, possessing a pleasing manner and endowed with a most lovable disposition; she won many friends who will bear with sincere sorrow of her death.

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Dec. 10. Mayor Lawrence presided and the following Aldermen were present: Johnson, Craig, Goodell, Dewar and Murphy. After the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the report of the Auditor, on the books of the Secretary of the Almshouse Commissioners, was heard and the accounts found correct. An order was passed requesting the former secretary to hand over five dollars of an overcharge on the salary. Another order, that the money together with all and any books, or papers held by him be passed over to the present Secretary. The Mayor asked for a report from the Street Committee. Alderman Goodell said, such a report should come from the Chairman of the Committee. A motion passed that the Committee make arrangements for ploughing the snow on the streets during the winter. In the matter of insuring the Town building, tenders were submitted by Mr. A. Herron and Mr. Leo McGrattan. Mr. McGrattan's tender, which was below two percent in the opinion of the Council should be accepted, provided the company was responsible. Several bills were presented by different committees, and ordered paid. Three hundred dollars was placed at the disposal of the building committee to be paid on account of the Town building.

Martin Magowan was appointed Auditor. Alderman Johnson was appointed to represent the town at the county council, the Marshall's salary was ordered paid and the meeting adjourned.

Richibucto Dec. 7.—Richibucto was visited this week by a band of fakirs, consisting of four women in peculiar costumes and hailing from California, who visited many houses under the pretence of telling fortunes and curing diseases. At one house where they called there was a girl in poor health, and they promised to cure her by a three days' treatment, provided her mother gave them $11 in advance. The suspicious and innocent mother gave them the money and the following morning they had left the village.

Did this band visit St. George last week, telling fortunes?

Hanson Bros. adv. on page 2 will just suit gentlemen looking for Christmas gifts for their friends.

A clipping in last week's issue relating to Christmas cards being hung in the public schools of New Brunswick, should have read the public schools of New York.

MAXWELL—CROSS.

A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, Granterville, Char. Co. on Wednesday evening to witness the marriage of their daughter, Mina Belle, to Richard Adrian Cross. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. E. V. Buchanan of St. George. At eight o'clock the happy couple entered the parlor, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion and took their stand beneath a wedding bell. The bride looked charming in a cream tulle veiling gown, and wore cream flowers. Both parties were unattended. The groom's present to the bride was a sum of money in gold. After congratulations refreshments were served by the sisters of the bride. The presents were costly and numerous, consisting of gold, silver, linen, crystal, and various other beautiful gifts which show how highly Mr. and Mrs. Cross are esteemed. Tin pans, cow bells, and guns made the usual music. Mr. and Mrs. Cross left next day for St. Stephen where they will for the present reside. The bride wore a travelling suit of blue velvet cloth with hat to match. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.
