JURE 10.—The ladies interested in the public lib-rary met on Friday afternoon. A report was read by the president, Mss. Henry Hill, concerning the amount of funds on hand. Miss Mary Abbot read amount of funds on hand. Miss Mary Abbot read an account of the expenses connected with the play antice's Triai, and presented the president with $87, the sum realized from the play. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. W. B. Wetmore and Miss Abbot for their energy and kindness in getting up the entertainment, and for the money presented. A thousand dollars has been raised by subscriptions and entertainments, and there has already been several donations of books. It is hoped the library will be open to to the public early in January 1880.

June 10.—The first party for the summer season was given last evening by Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, and was pronounced by all present a most delightful event. The evening was cool and pleasant, and the veranda and grounds were prettily illuminated with Chiniese lanterns; there were also several tents provided as a cool and quiet retreat for the tired dancers; but owing to the coolness of the evening the dancing was kept up with great zest until nearly 3 o'clock. Delicious refreshments were served during the entire evening and the music was charming. The guests numbered, I should think, about 100 but as the room was large and airy it didn't appear at all crowded. One remarkable feature for a Fredericton party was, there were quite as many

Miss Balley wore a very pretty Nile green cashmere, combined with surah silk; natural flowers.

Miss Watters, of St. John, who is the guest of Mrs. Bailey, wore a Nile green cashmere, with brown plant trimmings, a directoire costume.

Mrs. Gellibrand wore her bridal dress, an elegant white corded silk, with a three-yard train, caught at intervals with sprays of lillie of the valley. These trains are exceedingly difficult things to manage, particularly in a crowded ball-room, but Mrs. Gellibrand appeared to thoroughly understand the art.
